Shoal Point elects new Directors, appoints new CEO and CFO

TORONTO, ON: Shoal Point Energy Ltd. Announced today that at the Company's Annual General Meeting, held Friday, June 28, 2013, the following six directors were elected: Mark Jarvis, John Clarke, Howard Hanick, Norman Davidson-Kelly, Eric Schneider, and Chris Irwin.

At a meeting of the Board following the AGM, the Board of Directors accepted the resignations of Chris Irwin and Norman Davidson-Kelly.

George Langdon has resigned as President and Brian Murray has resigned as Chief Financial Officer of the Company.

The following new senior officers were appointed by the Board: Mark Jarvis as Chief Executive Officer, Brian Fiddler as Chief Financial Officer and Leslie Young as Corporate Secretary. The Board elected Eric Schneider as its new Chair.

"My mandate is to instill fiscal discipline, enhance corporate governance and ensure transparent disclosure by the Company," said incoming CEO Mark Jarvis. "I will make it a priority to have a professional working relationship with the relevant regulatory authorities in Newfoundland and with our farm-in partner, Black Spruce Energy. We are very excited about the opportunity presented by the Green Point Shale resource in western Newfoundland."

The Company's shareholders also passed an amendment to its general by-law which added an advance notice provision requiring that a shareholder wishing to nominate a director must give notice not less than 30 days prior to the shareholder meeting at which the election of directors is to be held. Full particulars of the amendment can be found in the notice of meeting posted on www.sedar.com.

About the new Board members:

Mark Jarvis joined the Board of Ultra Petroleum in 1996 and managed Corporate Finance during the early stages of acquisition, exploration and development of Ultra's Pinedale Anticline

(Wyoming) acreage. This unconventional gas resource was a greenfield prospect with no proven reserves when Mr. Jarvis joined the Company; Ultra's proven reserves are currently in excess of 3 trillion cubic feet of gas equivalent. Mr. Jarvis also serves on the Board of Hard Creek Nickel Corp., a TSX listed company.

Eric Schneider is a partner in the law firm of Miller Thomson LLP where he has practiced law since 1999. Prior to that, he was Vice President, Secretary and General Counsel at Schneider Corporation from 1990 to 1999. He currently serves on the board of SQI Diagnostics Inc., a TSXV listed company and served on the boards of several public Canadian companies in the past. Mr. Schneider obtained a B.Sc. (Physics) from the University of Waterloo in 1975 and a J.D. from the University of Toronto in 1978.
