This milestone marks the first U.S. retail rollout for Happy Caps, and introduces three of its most popular grow-at-home mushroom kit varieties - Shiitake, Lion's Mane, and Oyster mushrooms -to Oregon consumers. The kits are now available in the produce sections of 66 participating Safeway locations.

"Launching in 66 Safeway locations across Oregon is a major achievement for Happy Caps," said Todd Shapiro, CEO and Director of Red Light Holland. "We're especially proud to bring our premium mushroom grow-at-home kits to a region with such a strong appreciation for fresh, organic, and sustainable food. We are confident in the potential for further expansion, especially considering that Albertsons Companies operates over 2,200 stores across the United States and we are tremendously grateful for this current partnership."

Each participating Safeway store has received:

- 36 Happy Caps Mushroom Home Grow Kits (12 units each of Shiitake, Lion's Mane, and Oyster)
- 3 branded floor displays to enhance visibility
- Premium U.S.-specific packaging with "Made in the USA" and "Certified Organic" labels

Happy Caps is working in collaboration with Trailbridge Farms in Oregon to ensure local production, quality assurance, and rapid restocking. This launch builds on Happy Caps' seasonal presence in over 430 retail stores across North America and reflects growing consumer interest in fresh, functional mushrooms.

The Company continues to pursue additional U.S. and Canadian retail opportunities.
