CORPORATE OVERVIEW AND OUTLOOK

Wabi Exploration Inc. ("Wabi", or the "Company") is a Canadian, junior resource company that holds a 0.5% Net Smelter Royalty ("NSR") in the Georgia Lake and Conway Properties located in the Thunder Bay Mining District, Ontario. Wabi also holds three claims in the Copper Mountain area of Princeton, BC.

The Company's shares are listed on the Canadian Securities Exchange ("CSE") and are trading under the symbol "WAB".

Over the last five years, the global financial and commodity markets were characterized by extreme volatility as market participants reacted and responded to uncertainty and pessimism over the depressed North American and international economies. These circumstances have had an impact on the Company's operations and, in particular, on the economics of its existing exploration and evaluation projects, its strategy to evaluate and, if attractive, complete potential acquisitions and otherwise its ability to pursue growth opportunities. In the short-term, the Company is not actively carrying out any exploration activities on any of its claims due to the current lack of financial resources to do so.

The Company will continue to evaluate its strategic options and potential acquisitions and may, if conditions are favourable, seek to raise additional funds through a private or public offering of securities or debt as required.

COMPANY HIGHLIGHTS

- Wabi reported a net loss for the three months ended January 31, 2017 of $3,892 (2016 - $14,049). During the nine months ended January 31, 2017, the reported net loss was $24,688 (2016 - $32,211). The net loss during the current period is mainly due to shareholder relations costs, namely, costs incurred for printing and dissemination of shareholder materials for the Company's annual and special meeting.
- During the period ended January 31, 2017, the Company forfeited one of its claims in the Princeton, B.C. area, originally staked in July 2015.

OVERALL PERFORMANCE

The Company does not currently have a producing property. Recovery of the cost of mining assets is subject to the discovery of economically recoverable reserves, the ability to obtain the financing required to pursue the exploration and development of its properties, and profitable future production or the proceeds from the sale of its properties. The Company must periodically obtain new funds in order to pursue its activities. It is not possible to predict whether financing efforts will be successful and management cannot provide assurance that it will be able to obtain the required financing to fund operations.

MINERAL EXPLORATION PROPERTIES

None of the Company's properties are at or near production. As at January 31, 2017, the Company held three claims in the Copper Mountain area of Princeton, B.C. No work was performed on these claims during the three and nine months ended January 31, 2017.

NET SMELTER ROYALTY

In December 2014, Wabi acquired from its President and CEO (the "Assignor") the right, title and interest in a 0.5% Net Smelter Royalty ("NSR") in the Georgia Lake and Conway Properties located in the Thunder Bay Mining District, Ontario, for which the Company issued an aggregate of 500,000 common shares to the Assignor as consideration.

LIQUIDITY

Operating Activities

Cash flow used in operating activities during the nine month period ended January 31, 2017 was $19,114 compared to cash flow used of $20,410 during the same period in 2016.

Financing Activities

During the nine month period ended January 31, 2017, cash flow provided by financing activities was $20,442 (January 31, 2016 – $20,595) as a result of advances received from the Company's President & CEO during the period. The funds were used for general working capital purposes.

Liquidity Outlook

Wabi had cash of $2,261 available as at January 31, 2017, an increase of $1,328 from the balance at April 30, 2016 of $933. As at January 31, 2017, the Company had negative working capital of $312,410 (April 30, 2016 - $287,722) and cumulative losses of $2,652,909 (April 30, 2016 - $2,628,221).

The current cash and receivables as at January 31, 2017 will be used to pay existing liabilities and for general working capital purposes.

The Company has no operating revenues and relies primarily on equity financings and debt facilities to fund its exploration and administrative costs. The Company anticipates that it will be in need for external financing to maintain operations; there is no guarantee of obtaining future equity or debt financings will be on favourable terms to the Company. It is not possible to predict whether financing efforts will be successful.

The Company's operations consist of the exploration and evaluation of its sole property, a process that is ongoing, and is dependent on many factors some of which are beyond the Company's control. The Company maintains a policy of reviewing its working capital requirements on a continuous basis and is mindful of its property and administrative commitments.

The Company has a need for equity capital and because of limited working capital and continuing operating losses, the Company's continuance as a going concern is dependent upon its ability to obtain adequate financing. It is not possible to predict whether financing efforts will be successful. Given the current global financial conditions and recent lack of alternate sources of financing available to the Company, Wabi's President and CEO advances funds to the Company, from time to time, in order to cover working capital needs.
