First Tellurium Engages Middle East Corporate Advisors

Vancouver, BC, Canada, March 19, 2025 – First Tellurium Corp. (CSE: FTEL, OTC: FSTTF) reports that, due to growing inquiries from overseas markets regarding re the thermoelectric generator/radiator under development by the Company’s subsidiary PyroDelta Energy, First Tellurium has hired Montpellier Corporate Advisors of Dubai to help access capital and raise investor awareness in the Middle East. Interest in the device has increased significantly following the USA Today article about PyroDelta, published in December 2024.

First Tellurium President and CEO Tyrone Docherty stated: “The thermoelectric radiator’s basic concept of generating electricity from heat differentials has generated growing interest and opened a number of potential markets beyond autos. We’re receiving inquiries from both domestic and overseas interests, including the Middle East. As a result, we have contracted with Montpellier to assist us.”

Montpellier Corporate Advisors is located at Office 20, Burj Daman, DIFC, Dubai, UAE. Under the agreement, Montpellier will receive US$5,000 per month, plus success fees related to any funds raised for First Tellurium, for a minimum three-month term. Montpellier provides world-class advisory services to international companies and maintains an extensive network spanning key global markets with a particular focus on the Middle East. The firm maintains strategic relationships with sovereign wealth funds, family offices, high-net-worth individuals, and local brokers, providing direct access to critical market intelligence and exclusive investment opportunities. They work closely with clients to develop tailored investment strategies, manage risk, and unlock value across diverse asset classes.
