The Company retains the right to receive a portion of the interest on the factored ERC Refund Claims, if any. To date the Company has received approximately US$1.3 million, including interest, from the United States Internal Revenue Service with respect to approved ERC Refund Claims.

Additional Cash will be added to the Balance Sheet through the issuance of additional Second Lien Notes, including to an entity affiliated with the Company's Chairman and Chief Executive Officer, for continued growth.

BOCA RATON, Fla., Feb. 18, 2025 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Jushi Holdings Inc. ("Jushi" or the "Company") (CSE: JUSH) (OTCQX: JUSHF), a vertically integrated, multi-state cannabis operator, announced that it has received approximately US$5.1 million of proceeds in connection with the factoring of certain Employee Retention Credits ("ERC") refund claims and separately received binding subscriptions to sell additional 12% second lien notes due 2026 ("Second Lien Notes") under its existing Indenture for aggregate net proceeds of approximately US$4.6 million.

ERC Refund Claim Factoring

Certain affiliates of the Company sold approximately US$6.0 million of United States ERC refund claims to a third party for approximately US$5.1 million of net cash proceeds. Each affiliate is also entitled to receive a portion of any interest paid on their claims through the transaction date. Certain affiliates of the Company have approximately US$3.0 million of additional United States ERC refund claims remaining with the United States Internal Revenue Service which were not sold as part of this transaction.

“This non-dilutive transaction provides us with immediate additional liquidity, allows us to continue investing in our businesses and enhances our financial position and balance sheet stability” said Jim Cacioppo, Chairman, CEO and Founder of Jushi.

Sale of Additional Second Lien Notes

The Company also received binding subscriptions to sell approximately US$5.1 million aggregate principal amount of Second Lien Notes, from which the Company expects to receive net cash proceeds of approximately US$4.6 million. The Second Lien Notes will be sold pursuant to, and will be governed by, the Company's existing Trust Indenture, dated as of December 7, 2022, by and between the Company and Odyssey Trust Company, as trustee (as amended, the “Indenture”).

The Second Lien Notes will be issued at a 10.00% original issuance discount. The Purchasers will also receive detached five-year Warrants at 75% coverage and with an exercise price per share equal to a fifty percent (50%) premium to the volume weighted average price of a share on the Company's principal trading market over the trailing twenty (20) trading day period ending on the second (2nd) business day following the Company's public filing of its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2024, provided that in no event shall the exercise price be lower than US$0.45 or higher than US$0.50 (the “Warrants”).

The closing will occur at least five (5) business days following the date of this press release. At closing, the Company will issue the Second Lien Notes and the Warrants to the participants.

An entity affiliated with James Cacioppo, the Company's Chief Executive Officer, Chairman and Founder, has subscribed for approximately US$3.7 million principal amount of United States dollar denominated Second Lien Notes, for a purchase price of approximately US$3.35 million and will receive up to approximately 6.2 million Warrants. Denis Arsenault, a Founder and significant equity holder of the Company, has subscribed for

C$2 million principal amount of Canadian dollar denominated Second Lien Notes, for a purchase price of C$1.8 million and will receive up to approximately 2.4 million Warrants¹.

Each of Mr. Cacioppo, as a director and officer of the Company, and Mr. Arsenault, who owned greater than 10% of the then issued and outstanding subordinate voting shares of the Company (the "Shares") on as converted basis (calculated in accordance with MI 61-101 - Protection of Minority Security Holders in Special Transactions ("MI 61-101") of the Canadian Securities Administrators), will be considered a related party of the Company under MI 61-101 at the time the sale of the Second Lien Notes and Warrants are completed. As a result, upon consummation the offering will be considered a related party transaction under MI 61-101.

The Company intends to rely on exemptions from the formal valuation and minority shareholder approval requirements provided under sections 5.5(a) and 5.7(1)(a) of MI 61-101 on the basis that the purchases of the Second Lien Notes and Warrants by Mr. Cacioppo and Mr. Arsenault did not exceed 25% of the fair market value of the Company's market capitalization at the time of such purchase.

The Second Lien Notes and Warrants have not been registered under the United States Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act") or the securities laws of any state, and were offered and sold only to accredited investors in a private placement transaction in reliance upon the exemption from registration afforded by Section 4(a)(2) under the Securities Act and Regulation D promulgated thereunder and/or Regulation S, as applicable, and pursuant to exemption from the provisions of any applicable state securities laws. This press release shall not constitute an offer to sell or the solicitation of an offer to buy, nor shall such securities be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an applicable exemption from the registration requirements and the Second Lien Notes and Warrants contain a legend stating the same.
