

CLEANGO INNOVATIONS PROVIDES AN UPDATE TO THE PREVIOUSLY RELEASED NEWS WITH MAKERSOUL Non-Binding LOI for Proposed RTO Transaction

Vancouver, B.C. – January 26th, 2025, - CleanGo Innovations Inc. (CSE:CGII),(OTC:CLGO.F) ,(FRA:APO2) CleanGo Innovations Inc. (“CleanGo” or the “Company”) CleanGo Innovations today provides an update to the previously announced Non-Binding RTO with MakerSoul on Jan 7, 2025.

CleanGo Innovations, a leader in proprietary green technologies announced earlier this month that they had entered into a Non-Binding LOI with Maker Soul to consider an RTO. After further due diligence, careful consideration and feedback from current investors CleanGo has decided to terminate the RTO offer and explore better suited transactions for both the company and its shareholders.

With a focus on driving sales and expanding the commercial reach of CleanGo’s flagship product, the CG-100, CleanGo Innovations plans to switch its focus in Q1 2025 on growing this part of the business which services both industrial and petroleum related business. The CG-100's innovative features have already started to drive change in both industrial and petroleum market standards, and the Company is committed to scaling up its production to meet the increasing demand.

Anthony Sarvucci CEO stated “We as an emerging company look at all opportunities as they present themselves. We need to consider the economic impact to both the company and our shareholders, listen to our partners and investors before any final decisions are made. Thank you to the shareholders who contacted me to discuss the viability of this deal and the potential impacts. We as a company look forward to a prosperous 2025”
