

Karma Integrates with the Stripe Network to Enhance Customer Acquisition

Boulder, Colorado and Vancouver, British Columbia--(Newsfile Corp. - April 26, 2024) - Intellabridge Technology Corporation (CSE: KASH) (OTCQB: KASHF) (FSE: KASH) (the "Company"), a leader in innovative financial solutions that integrates impact with everyday financial transactions, is pleased to announce its integration with Stripe for payments identity verification and management to enhance customer onboarding and maximize conversion. The integration of the Stripe network into the Karma platform marks a significant advancement in ensuring an easier and more secure user experience which will help the Company achieve its customer acquisition targets and expand into new markets.

Enhancing the User Experience and Accelerating Customer Acquisition

The Stripe network integration will allow Karma to programmatically confirm the identities of its users, significantly reducing potential fraud while minimizing friction for legitimate customers, making it easier to onboard new customers, verify deposits, and manage payments. This integration is crucial for maintaining the integrity and trustworthiness of the Karma community, ensuring that all interactions and transactions are secure and verified.

Key Benefits of the Stripe Integration:

- Optimized User Experience: Guides customers through efficient photo capture processes, improving verification success rates and maximizing conversion rates.
- Advanced Fraud Detection: Utilizes machine learning to detect fake IDs and prevent fraudulent activities.
- Comprehensive Security: Employs stringent security measures, including data isolation and encrypted communications, to protect user information.

A Word from Our CEO

"The integration of Stripe is an important development in our commitment to providing a secure and seamless onboarding experience," said John Eagleton, CEO of Karma and Intellabridge. "This advanced technology not only makes it easier to onboard customers but also helps to accelerate customer growth rates and expand into new markets."
