Toronto, Ontario - (September 21, 2023) - Younet is pleased to announce the successful completion of testing on its innovative Rabbit AI personal assistant platform. Younet management believes the Rabbit AI platform has potential to redefine how companies can operate efficiently. One user of Younet’s platform can potentially assist or even replace multiple back-office departments that may be redundant or inefficient.

To further showcase its capabilities, Younet has released a video demo of the platform with link below. The video was entirely produced using AI tools, with the script being crafted by Rabbit Ai, removing the requirement for a human copywriter or editor.
