1. NATURE OF OPERATIONS AND GOING CONCERN

Stock Trend Capital Inc. ("Stock Trend" or "the Company") (formerly, "World Class Extractions Inc." or "WCE") was incorporated under the laws of British Columbia on December 2, 1965. The head office of the Company is located at 301 - 217 Queen St. West, Toronto, Ontario, M5V 0R2. The registered office is located at 301 - 217 Queen St. West, Toronto, Ontario, M5V 0R2.

Stock Trend Capital Inc. is an investment issuer listed on the Canadian Securities Exchange (the "CSE"), and primarily focused on investments in the Canadian cannabis industry. Stock Trend intends to focus on investing in private and public entities with strong intellectual property, exceptional management and high growth potential that may be strategically positioned in the market.

On April 29, 2022, the shareholders approved a special resolution to change the Company's business (the "Change of Business"). The proposed Change of Business would refocus the Company's business operations from a cannabis and hemp company to an investment company focused on the raising of money and investing in the cannabis and cannabis related sectors. The Change of Business occurred on February 27, 2023, at which time, the CSE approved the listing of the Company's common shares for trading under the stock ticker "PUMP". In connection with the CSE listing, the Company completed a name change from World Class Extractions Inc., to "Stock Trend Capital Inc.". There is no change in the capitalization structure of the Company as a result of the change of name. The decision to change the name reflects the Company's change of business, pursuant to CSE policies, from a cannabis company to an investment company.

The Company is listed on the CSE under the symbol "PUMP", the Frankfurt Stock Exchange under the symbol "WCF" and "WKN:A2PF9C", and the OTCQB Venture Market, under the symbol: "WCEXF". The Financial Industry Regulatory Authority Inc. ("FINRA") approved the Company's request to change its OTC ticker symbol from WCEXF to STOCF, effective as of the opening of market trading on May 22, 2023.

Prior to the Change of Business, the Company was an innovation-driven company operating specialized compliant and secure delivery of government regulated products, including legal cannabis delivery within select provinces in Canada and liquor delivery in certain jurisdictions. These operations were disposed of during the year ended April 30, 2022 (Note 4).

Going Concern

The Company incurred a net loss and comprehensive loss of $86,521 for the three months ended July 31, 2023. As at July 31, 2023, the Company had a history of losses and an accumulated deficit of $59,736,004. Total cash as at July 31, 2023, amounted to $1,052,769.

The ability of the Company to continue as a going concern is dependent on achieving profitable operations, positive operating cash flows and obtaining the necessary financing. The outcome of these matters cannot be predicted at this time. The Company will continue to review the prospects of raising additional debt and equity financing to support its operations until such time that its operations become self-sustaining, to fund its operating activities and to ensure the realization of its assets and discharge of its liabilities. While the Company is exerting its best efforts to achieve the above plans, there is no assurance that any such activity will generate sufficient funds for future operations. These factors indicate that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

2. BASIS OF PRESENTATION

Statement of Compliance and Presentation

These interim condensed consolidated financial statements including comparatives, have been prepared by the Company's management in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") applicable to the preparation of interim financial statements, including International Accounting Standard ("IAS") 34, "Interim Financial Reporting". These interim condensed consolidated financial statements do not include all disclosures required for full IFRS financial statements and should be read in conjunction with the most recent audited annual financial statements for the year ended April 30, 2023, which were prepared in accordance with IFRS as issued by IASB. The accounting policies set out in Note 3 of the audited annual financial statements for the year ended April 30, 2023, have been applied consistently to all periods presented in these interim condensed consolidated financial statements.

These interim condensed consolidated financial statements are presented in Canadian dollars except where otherwise indicated.

These interim condensed consolidated financial statements were approved and authorized for issue by the directors of the Company on September 25, 2023.

Basis of Measurement

These interim condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis, except for financial instruments classified as financial instruments at fair value through profit or loss at fair value through other comprehensive income, share-based payments, which are stated at their fair value.

Investment Entity

The Company uses the following criteria, contained within IFRS 10 - Consolidated financial statements, to determine if the Company meets the definition of an Investment Entity ("Investment Entity"):

- Obtain funds from one or more investors for the purpose of providing those investor(s) with investment management services;
- Commits to its investor(s) that its business purpose is to invest funds solely for returns from capital appreciation, investment income or both; and
- Measures and evaluates the performance of substantially all its investments on a fair value basis.

The Company has evaluated the above criteria and determined that it meets the definition of an Investment Entity. As a result of meeting the definition of an Investment Entity, subsidiaries, which otherwise would have been consolidated, are carried at fair value.

2. BASIS OF PRESENTATION (Continued)

Significant Estimates, Assumptions and Judgements

The preparation of the interim condensed consolidated financial statements requires management to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of policies and reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses. Estimates and associated assumptions applied in determining asset or liability values are based on historical experience and various other factors including other sources that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances but are not necessarily readily apparent or recognizable at the time such estimates or assumptions are made. Actual results may differ from these estimates. The information about significant areas of estimates considered by management in preparing the interim condensed consolidated financial statements is as follows:

Income taxes

Tax provisions are based on enacted or substantively enacted laws. Changes in those laws could affect amounts recognized in profit or loss both in the period of change, which would include any impact on cumulative provisions, and in future periods. Deferred tax assets (if any) are recognized only to the extent it is considered probable that those assets will be recoverable. This involves an assessment of when those deferred tax assets are likely to reverse and a judgment as to whether or not there will be sufficient taxable profits available to offset the tax assets when they do reverse. This requires assumptions regarding future profitability and is therefore inherently uncertain. To the extent assumptions regarding future profitability change, there can be an increase or decrease in the amounts recognized in respect of deferred tax assets as well as the amounts recognized in profit or loss in the period in which the change occurs.

Stock options and warrants

Determining the fair value of warrants and stock options requires estimates related to the choice of a pricing model, the estimation of stock price volatility, the expected forfeiture rate and the expected term of the underlying instruments. Any changes in the estimates or inputs utilized to determine fair value could have a significant impact on the Company's future operating results or on other components of shareholders' equity.

Fair value of financial instruments

Certain of the Company's financial assets and liabilities are measured at fair value. In estimating fair value the Company uses market-observable data to the extent it is available. In applying the valuation technique, management is required to determine and make assumptions about the most appropriate inputs to the valuation model including the expected life, volatility, dividend yield and forfeiture rate. Such assumptions are inherently uncertain and changes in these assumptions affect the fair value estimates.

Fair value of private company investments

Where the fair values of investments in private companies cannot be derived from active markets, they are determined using a variety of valuation techniques. The inputs to these models are derived from observable market data where possible, but where observable market data is not available, judgment is required to establish fair value and this value may not be indicative of recoverable value.

The determinations of the fair value other than initial cost is subject to certain limitations. Financial information for private companies in which the Company has investments may not be available and, even if available, that information may be limited.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

Recent accounting pronouncements

At the date of authorization of these financial statements, certain new standards, amendments, and interpretations to existing IFRS standards have been published but are not yet effective and have not been adopted early by the Company. The following was adopted by the Company during the period ended July 31, 2023:

The IASB issued an amendment to IAS 1, Presentation of Financial Statements, to clarify one of the requirements under the standard for classifying a liability as non-current in nature, specifically for the requirement for an entity to have the right to defer settlement of the liability for at least 12 months after the reporting period. This amendment includes:

- Specifying that an entity's right to defer settlement must exist at the end of the reporting period;
- Clarifying that classification is unaffected by management's intentions or expectations about whether the entity will exercise its right to defer settlement;
- Clarifying how lending conditions affect classification; and
- Clarifying requirements for classifying liabilities an entity will or may settle by issuing its own equity investments.

The amendment is effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 31, 2023. There was no impact on the Company's financial statements as a result of this amendment.

4. SALE OF SUBSIDIARIES

5. INVESTMENTS (Continued)

CannaWorld

Pursuant to the disposition of Soma, during the year ended April 30, 2022, the Company acquired 15,000,000 common shares of CannaWorld, a private company incorporated in British Columbia, with a fair value of $300,000 (Note 4).

As of April 30, 2023, CannaWorld common shares were valued at $750,000 using the market approach with the following key assumptions:

- Timing of the most recent capital financing of the investee;
- Type of common shares issued in the most recent capital financing of the investee; and
- Pooling agreement and additional share rights.

During the year ended April 30, 2023, the Company recorded an unrealized gain on investment through profit and loss of $450,000.

As of July 31, 2023, the value of the common shares remained at $750,000 as there were no indications of any changes in the assumptions noted above. For the three months ended July 31, 2023, the Company recorded an unrealized gain on investment through profit and loss of $Nil (2022 - $Nil).

IM Cannabis Corp.

On February 1, 2023, the Company acquired 80,000 units of IM Cannabis Corp (“IMCC”), a Canadian public company, at $1.33 (US$1.25) per unit for consideration of $133,210 (US$100,000). Each unit consists of one common share and one share-purchase warrant. Each warrant entitles a holder to purchase one common share at US$1.50 per share for a period of 36 months following the issuance date. The shares and warrants of IMCC are initially measured using the residual method which first allocates value to the more easily measurable component based on fair value (common shares) and then the residual value, if any, to the less easily measurable component (warrants). The shares were valued at $133,210 and the warrants were valued at $nil on the acquisition date.

As of July 31, 2023, IMCC shares were valued at $90,974 (April 30, 2023 - $78,861) based on the published market price on July 31, 2023. During the three months ended July 31, 2023, the Company recorded an unrealized gain on investment through profit and loss of $12,113 (2022 - $Nil).

Hash Corporation

In February 2023, the Company acquired 329,452 common shares of The Hash Corporation (“HashCo”) in connection with conversion of the loan debenture with a balance of $16,473 (Note 7). As of July 31, 2023, HashCo shares were valued at $1,647 (April 30, 2023 - $1,647) based on the published market price as at July 31, 2023. 5. INVESTMENTS (Continued)

Investment in Warrants

Warrants have been received as attachments to share-purchase units and do not trade in an active market. At the time of purchase, the unit cost is allocated to common shares and warrants using the residual value method. The value of the warrants is subsequently determined at the measurement date using the Black-Scholes option pricing model.

The Company's investment in warrants consists of share-purchase warrants of IMCC which are measured at fair value using the Black Scholes option pricing model.

	As of July 31, 2023	As of April 30, 2023
Balance, beginning of period	$ 47,681	$ -
Change in fair value of warrants	6,028	47,681
Balance, end of period	$ 53,709	$ 47,681

The fair value of investment in IMCC warrants is estimated by using the Black-Scholes option pricing model with the following assumptions:

	July 31, 2023	April 30, 2023
Risk-free interest rate	4.73%	3.72%
Expected life of options	2.51 years	2.76 years
Annualized volatility	122.02%	123.64%
Dividend rate	0.00%	0.00%

With all other assumptions held constant, a change of 10% in the annualized volatility would result in a change of $5,371 on the fair value of investment in options and warrants during the three months ended July 31, 2023 (2022 - $Nil).

6. SALES TAX RECEIVABLE

The amount consists of the refunds claimed for goods and services tax from the government. The balance as at July 31, 2023 is $10,546 (April 30, 2023 - $19,428).

7. LOANS RECEIVABLE

7. LOAN RECEIVABLE (Continued)

The Hash Corporation

On February 24, 2023, HashCo issued a secured convertible debenture (“Debenture”) in the amount of $750,000 (the “Debenture”) to the Company. The Debenture bore an interest at 5% per annum and matured on May 31, 2023. On April 28, 2023, the Company and HashCo entered into a debenture settlement agreement whereby $740,000 was repaid in cash and $16,473 was converted into 329,452 shares of HashCo with a fair value of $16,473 (Note 5). Of $16,473, $10,000 was the principal balance and $6,473 was the accrued interest. As of July 31, 2023, HashCo shares were valued at $1,647 (April 30, 2023 - $1,647) based on the published market price as at July 31, 2023.

CannaWorld Venture Inc.

During the year ended April 30, 2022, a promissory note with a principal balance of $400,000 was issued to the Company (“Loan Receivable”), it was, as amended, due on or before October 14, 2023 (“Maturity Date”). Interest is payable at a rate of 4% per annum on the Maturity Date.

During the year ended April 30, 2023, the Loan Receivable was reassigned to a new debtor (the “Debtor”). The term has been amended whereby in the event that the Debtor raises at any time an aggregate of $5,000,000 in cash through the sale of common shares in the capital of the Debtor at a price of at least $0.10 per Debtor share, the Debtor shall repay the amount outstanding under the Loan Receivable, inclusive of principal and interest (the “Debt Amount”) owing through the issuance of the Debtor’s shares at a deemed price of $0.10 per Debtor share. If at any time until the Debtor lists its shares for trading on a stock exchange or other alternative trading system, Debtor issues common shares less than $0.10 to any person, the Debtor shall issue to the Company additional common shares that equals the difference between the Debt Amount divided by the lower per price share, less the number of common shares previously issued to the Company.

Upon reassignment of the Loan Receivable, the Company designated the financial instruments as a whole as FVTPL. As of April 30, 2023, the Loan Receivable is measured with an effective interest rate of 17.5% with the following key assumptions and inputs:

- Observable bond yields of CCC- rated bonds in the healthcare and cannabis sectors;
- Effective interest rate of convertible debentures issued by publicly traded companies comparable to CannaWorld, specifically, companies that operate in the cannabis sector;
- Venture capital rate of return for early-stage companies; and
- Probability of the condition being met for exercise of the conversion feature.

During the period ended July 31, 2023, there were no changes to the key assumptions and inputs above. As of July 31, 2023, the fair value of the Loan Receivable including the principal balance and accrued interest is $405,575 (April 30, 2023 - $401,272). During the three months ended July 31, 2023, the Company recorded interest income of $4,303 (2022 - $12,850).

17. MANAGEMENT OF FINANCIAL RISK AND SENSITIVITY ANALYSIS

The primary goals of the Company's risk management programs are to ensure that the outcomes of activities involving elements of risk are consistent with the Company's objectives and risk tolerance. The Company's investment strategy requires a level of risk in exchange for an above average return on investment. The Company plans to maintain an appropriate risk and reward balance while protecting the Company's financial operations from events that have the potential to materially impair its financial strength. Balancing risk and reward is achieved through aligning risk tolerance with the Company's business strategy, diversifying risk, pricing appropriately for risk, mitigating risk through preventative controls and transferring risk to third parties.

The success of the Company is dependent upon its ability to assess and manage all forms of risk that affect its operations. The Company is exposed to many factors that could adversely affect its business, financial conditions or operating results. Developing policies and procedures to identify risk and the implementation of appropriate risk management policies and procedures is the responsibility of senior management and the Board of Directors. The Board directly, or through its committees, reviews and approves these policies and procedures, and monitors their compliance with them through ongoing reporting requirements.

17. MANAGEMENT OF FINANCIAL RISK AND SENSITIVITY ANALYSIS (Continued)

The investment operations of the Company's business involve the purchase and sale of securities and, accordingly, the majority of the Company's assets are currently comprised of financial instruments. The use of financial instruments can expose the Company to several risks, including liquidity, market, interest, credit and currency risks. A discussion of the Company's use of financial instruments and their associated risks is provided below. There has been no change to the Company's risk management policies or processes during the period.

(a) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will have sufficient cash resources to meet its financial obligations as they come due. The Company's liquidity and operating results may be adversely affected if the Company's access to the capital markets is hindered, whether as a result of a downturn in stock market conditions generally or related to matters specific to the Company, or if the value of the Company's investments declines, resulting in losses upon disposition. The Company generates cash flow primarily from its operational activities and the proceeds from the disposition of its investments, in addition to interest and dividend income earned on its investments. The Company has sufficient investments which are freely tradable and relatively liquid to fund its obligations as they become due under normal operating conditions.

The Company's financial liabilities include accounts payable and accrued liabilities. The carrying amount of these financial liabilities approximate their respective fair values due to their short-term maturities. Management is not aware of any trends or expected fluctuations that would create any liquidity deficiencies. All the Company's liabilities are due within the next twelve months.

The Company believes that cash flow from continuing operations and existing cash resources will be sufficient to meet the Company's short-term requirements, as well as ongoing operations, and will be able to generate sufficient capital to support the Company's operations in the long-term. However, the Company may procure debt or equity financing from time to time to fund its operations.

(b) Market risk

The Company is exposed to certain market risk that the value of the Company's financial assets will significantly fluctuate due to changes in market prices. The value of the financial assets can be affected by changes in interest rates, foreign exchange rates, and equity and commodity prices. The Company is exposed to market risk in trading its investments, and unfavorable market conditions could result in dispositions of investments at less than favorable prices. Additionally, the Company is required to mark to market its FVTPL investments at the end of each reporting period. This process could result in significant write-downs of the Company's investments over one or more reporting periods, particularly during periods of overall market instability, which would have a significant unfavourable effect on the Company's financial position. The Company manages market risk by having a portfolio which is not singularly exposed to any one issuer or class of issuers. The Company monitors changes in the market on an ongoing basis and adjusts its lending and investing practices and policies when necessary to reduce the impact of the above risks.

The Company's investments include publicly listed entities that are listed on a Canadian and United States stock exchange and private companies. Changes in the fair value of investments designated as FVTPL are reported in the statement of income and comprehensive income.

The following table shows the estimated sensitivity on the statement of loss and comprehensive loss for the period ended July 31, 2023, from a change in closing price of the Company's investments in common shares of public companies, with all other variables held constant as at July 31, 2023:

Percentage of change in closing price	Change in comprehensive income/loss from % increase in closing price	Change in comprehensive income/loss from % decrease in closing price

The following table shows the estimated sensitivity on the statement of loss and comprehensive loss for the period ended July 31, 2023, from a change in volatility of the Company's investments in warrants, with all other variables held constant as at July 31, 2023:

Percentage of change in volatility	Change in comprehensive income/loss from % increase in volatility	Change in comprehensive income/loss from % decrease in volatility
10%	5,371	(5,371)

(c) Interest rate risk

The observable impacts on the fair values and future cash flows of financial instruments that can be directly attributable to interest rate risk include changes in net income from financial instruments whose cash flows are determined with reference to floating interest rates and changes in value of financial instruments whose cash flows are fixed in nature.

Should market interest rates rise, then the fair value of these convertible debentures and term debt may decrease. Conversely, should market interest rates fall, the fair value of these assets may increase. The effect of changes in interest rates on the fair value of these debt instruments is partially muted by the nature of the investments. Convertible debentures placed in early-stage investees are typically less sensitive to changes in market interest rates than non-convertible debt instruments placed in more mature investees. As the convertible debentures have fixed interest rates, the Company is not subject to significant interest rate risk.

(d) Credit risk

Concentration of credit risk may arise from exposures to a single debtor or to a group of debtors having similar characteristics such that their ability to meet their current obligations is expected to be affected similarly by changes in economic or other conditions. Senior management is committed to several processes to ensure that this risk is appropriately mitigated. These include:

- obtaining collateral guarantees;
- the investigation of the creditworthiness of all borrowers;
- the engagement of qualified independent consultants such as lawyers and real estate appraisers, to whom management may reach for professional advice;
- the segregation of duties to ensure that qualified staff are satisfied with all due diligence requirements prior to funding; and
- the prompt initiation of recovery procedures on overdue loans.

17. MANAGEMENT OF FINANCIAL RISK AND SENSITIVITY ANALYSIS (Continued)

(e) Currency risk

Foreign exchange risk exposures arise from transactions and balances denominated in foreign currencies. The Company's foreign currency risk arises primarily with respect to the United States dollar. Fluctuations in the exchange rates between the United States dollar and the Canadian dollar could have a material effect on the Company's business, financial condition, and results of operations. The Company does not engage in any hedging activity to mitigate this risk.

The Company has cash and investments in companies denominated in a foreign currency. For the period ended July 31, 2023, management estimates that if the United States dollar had strengthened or weakened by 10% against the Canadian dollar, assuming all other variables remained constant, net loss for the period would have increased or decreased by approximately $20,567 (2022 - $35,396).

The functional currency of the Company is Canadian dollar. The Company does not hedge its exposure to currency fluctuations. However, management believes that the Company is subject to minimal foreign exchange risk as most transactions incurred are in CAD.

18. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

The primary goals of the Company's risk management programs are to ensure that the outcomes of activities involving elements of risk are consistent with the Company's objectives and risk tolerance. The Company's investment strategy requires a level of risk in exchange for an above average return on investment. The Company plans to maintain an appropriate risk and reward balance while protecting the Company's financial operations from events that have the potential to materially impair its financial strength. Balancing risk and reward are achieved through aligning risk tolerance with the Company's business strategy, diversifying risk, pricing appropriately for risk, mitigating risk through preventative controls and transferring risk to third parties. For the period ended July 31, 2023, the shareholders' equity comprised of share capital, contributed surplus and deficit.

The Company's objectives when managing capital are:

- (a) to ensure that the Company maintains the level of capital necessary to meet the requirements of its brokers and bank;
- (b) to allow the Company to respond to changes in economic and/or marketplace conditions by maintaining the Company's ability to purchase new investments;
- (c) to give shareholders sustained growth in shareholder value by increasing shareholders' equity. It is the intention of the Company in the long term to pay out a portion of its future annual earnings to shareholders in the form of dividends; and
- (d) to maintain a flexible capital structure which optimizes the cost of capital at acceptable levels of risk.

The Company manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it in the light of changes in economic conditions and the risk of its underlying assets. The Company has the ability to maintain or adjust its capital level to enable it to meet its objectives by:

- (a) realizing proceeds from the disposition of its investments;
- (b) utilizing leverage in the form of margin (due to brokers) and long-term debt from financial lenders; and
- (c) raising capital through equity financings.

There were no changes in the Company's approach to capital management during the period. The Company is not subject to any externally imposed capital requirements.
