DESCRIPTION OF BUSINESS

The Company, based in Vancouver British Columbia was incorporated under the Business Corporations Act (British Columbia) on October 10, 2017. The Company's head and registered office is located at 417-1080 Mainland St., Vancouver, British Columbia, Canada. The Company's corporate website address is www.luxxfolio.com. The Company is listed on the CSE under the trading symbol "LUXX".

The Company operates within the digital asset industry, most recently mining Bitcoin through its wholly owned subsidiaries, Luxxfolio Network Inc. ("LNI") and WestBlock Capital Inc. ("WestBlock"), which share the same head and registered office as the Company. Both LNI and WestBlock became non-operating subsidiaries on November 30, 2022, following the closure of WestBlock's Bitcoin mining facility in Shiprock, New Mexico (the "New Mexico Mining Facility"). Further, the Company lost control of its Westblock subsidiaries and related assets following the notification by the Navajo Tribal Utility Authority ("NTUA") that it had seized the Company's property and restricted access to the mining facility (See "Overall Performance").

The Company has eliminated all secured debt obligations but has lost access to key pieces of equipment necessary for operation of the mining facility (see "Debt Settlements"). Accordingly, the Company will not be returning to Bitcoin mining at the New Mexico Facility.

Since the closure of its mining facilities, the Company has been focused on exploring its strategic alternatives. The Company announced on November 28, 2024, that it intended to adopt a digital asset staking strategy and announced a related financing to provide the capital to support this new strategy. Details of the financing, announced on December 4, 2024, provided that up to $1.3 million would be raised through the issuance of up to 43,333,333 million units at a price of $0.03 per unit. Each unit in the offering will consist of one common share of the Company and one warrant to acquire one additional common share at an exercise price of $0.07 per share for a period of eighteen months from the closing date of the issue.

Interim MD&A – Quarterly Highlights

For the three months ended November 30, 2024 and 2023

The Company's most significant asset as of August 31, 2024 are its consolidated non-capital tax loss carry-forward amounts totalling $14,682,045 (2023 - $14,537,204), expiring between 2037 and 2044. These tax losses may be available to reduce future years' Canadian taxable income

The Company's continued existence is dependent upon its ability to raise additional capital and realize revenue and positive cash flows from future operations. Failure to do so would have an adverse effect on the financial position of the Company and its ability to continue as a going concern.

OVERALL PERFORMANCE

Operational performance was impacted by many negative pressures throughout 2022 and 2023. Declining mining economics and Bitcoin valuation, late delivery of critical equipment for mine upgrading and expansion and limited capital opportunities contributed to poor economic results and ultimately, closure of the mining facility.

The Company had no revenues during the three months ended November 30, 2024, since all operating activity had been shut down.

As the date of this Interim MD&A, the Company has:

- Permanently closed operations at the New Mexico mining facility effective November 30, 2022;
- Concluded debt settlement arrangements with both of the Company's equipment lenders to exchange mining equipment assets in full settlement of all related debts;
- Actively sought opportunities to restructure and/or refinance the Luxxfolio business which are ongoing;
- Reduced operating expenses to a minimum to conserve available cash resources; and
- Reduced staffing levels to the minimum necessary to maintain ongoing business operations.

New Mexico Mining Facility

The Company lost control of WestBlock and its subsidiaries as well as WestBlock's mining facility assets on November 30, 2022 due to access restrictions imposed by the NTUA for non-payment of the unsecured note due May 2024 and the accumulated power supply charges incurred by WestBlock, LLC, the operator of the facility. Accordingly, the Company has written down its investment in the WestBlock operating subsidiaries and derecognised these in the audited consolidated financial statements for the year ended August 31, 2023, incurring a loss on deconsolidation of $2,877,530. Any value realized on the disposition of the remaining assets will be recognised at the time of disposition.

DISCUSSION OF OPERATIONS

Non-brokered private placement

On November 28, 2024, the Company announced a cryptocurrency proof-of-stake ("POS") strategy to offer shareholders a diversified pure-play, rolling portfolio of top proof-of-stake cryptocurrencies by market capitalization. To facilitate the execution of this strategy, the Company announced on December 4, 2024, details of the accompanying financing. The non-brokered private placement comprises up to 43,333,333 units at $0.03 per unit for maximum gross proceeds of $1.3 million. In connection with National Instrument 52-109 Certificate of Disclosure in Issuers' Annual and Interim Filings, the Interim Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer of the Company have filed a Venture Issuer Basic Certificate with respect to the financial information contained in the unaudited interim condensed consolidated financial statements and the accompanying Interim MD&A For the three months ended November 30, 2024 and 2023.

CRYPTOCURRENCY AND CYBERSECURITY RISKS

The Company has announced its strategy to engage in the cryptocurrency staking (mining), which may include Bitcoin at the date of this MD&A. The following risks will be relevant to operating in this industry.

Digital Asset Pricing Risk

Cryptocurrency pricing is affected by numerous factors including international supply and demand, interest rates, inflation or deflation, and global political and economic conditions. The profitability of the Company is directly related to the current and future pricing of cryptocurrencies, including Bitcoin. A decline in the market price of cryptocurrencies could have a negative impact on the Company's future operations and financial results. In addition, a lack of market liquidity could limit the Company's ability to sell some cryptocurrencies on a timely basis and at acceptable pricing levels.

Risk of Security Breaches

Breaches in network security, computer malfeasance and hacking are continuing concerns in the Cryptocurrency Exchange markets. Typically, security breaches result in unauthorized access, from internal or external sources, to information, systems, and control, to cause intentional damage and disruption of data transactions, hardware and related technologies which could result in unquantifiable loss to the Company's business operations and loss of assets.

Technology Security

Constantly changing technology used in the Blockchain Network, continually introduces opportunities for malicious actors to breach security protocols and potentially damage, steal or control Company assets.

Bitcoin Halving Risk

Bitcoin halving, which occurs every four years, is an event that has in the past triggered a 50% reduction in the Bitcoin valuations and has similarly impacted the value of many cryptocurrencies.. The future effect of any Bitcoin halving on Bitcoin and the broader cryptocurrency market cannot be forecast, and as such, represents a risk to the valuation of cryptocurrencies and the Company's ability to continue as a going concern.

Cryptocurrency Pricing Volatility Risk

The wide fluctuation of cryptocurrency values creates a risk to the earnings capability and cryptocurrency asset valuations that could be material to the results of operations and financial position of the Company.

Cryptocurrency Market Adoption

Currently, there is relatively small use of Bitcoin in the retail and commercial marketplace in comparison to the relatively larger use by speculators and investors. This uneven growth will contribute to volatility in pricing and could adversely affect an investment in the Company's shares. Further, if fees increase for recording transactions on the Bitcoin Blockchain, demand for Bitcoin may be reduced and contribute to slowing growth of the Bitcoin Network to retail and commercial enterprises resulting in market limitations and associated Bitcoin demand and valuation challenges.

OTHER RISKS AND UNCERTAINTIES

Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the potential that a counterparty to a financial instrument will fail to discharge its contractual obligations. The Company manages credit risk, in respect of its cash and funds held in trust by placing its cash balances at a recognized major Canadian financial institution.

Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will encounter difficulty in satisfying financial obligations as they become due. The Company manages its liquidity risk on an ongoing basis in accordance with policies and procedures in place. Budgeting and Cash flow projections are completed and reviewed on a regular basis to ensure the Company has sufficient cash resources available to meet its financial obligations. The Company is exposed to liquidity risk in respect of its accounts payable and accrued liabilities, and long-term debt.

Interest rate risk

Interest rate risk is the risk that the fair value of future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate due to changes in the market interest rates. The Company's exposure to interest rate risk is limited and relates only to its ability to earn interest income on cash balances held from time to time at variable rates. Changes in short term rates will not have a significant effect on the fair value of the Company's cash positions.

Limited Operating History

The Company was recently commenced full operations at its Bitcoin mining facility and has no previous operating history. The Company and its business prospects must be viewed against the background of the risks, expenses and problems frequently encountered by companies in the early stages of their development, particularly companies in new and rapidly evolving markets such as Bitcoin mining and blockchain technology. There is no certainty that the Company will attain its business objectives or operate profitably.

No Profits to Date

The Company has not made any profits since its incorporation. The Company's future profitability depends upon its ability to refinance and/or restructure its business operations.

Additional Requirements for Capital

Substantial additional financing is required if the Company is to successfully develop its business. No assurances can be given that the Company will be able to raise the additional capital that it may require for its anticipated future development. Any additional equity financing may be dilutive to investors and debt financing, if available, may involve restrictions on financing and operating activities. There is no assurance that additional financing will be available on terms acceptable to the Company, if at all. If the Company is unable to obtain additional financing as needed, its continued existence will likely cease.

Regulatory Risks

Changes in or more aggressive enforcement of laws and regulations could adversely impact the Company's business. Failure or delays in obtaining necessary approvals could have a materially adverse effect on the Company's financial condition and results of operations. Furthermore, changes in government, regulations and policies and practices could have an adverse impact on the Company's future cash flows, earnings, results of operations and financial condition. Regulatory agencies could shut down or restrict the use of Bitcoin and the mining of Bitcoin. This could lead to a loss of any investment made in the Company and may trigger regulatory action by the authorities.

Litigation

The Company may become involved in litigation that may materially adversely affect either company or both companies. From time to time in the ordinary course of the Company's business, it may become involved in various legal proceedings. Such matters can be time-consuming, divert management's attention and resources and cause the Company to incur significant expenses. Furthermore, because litigation is inherently unpredictable, the results of any such actions may have a material adverse effect on the Company's business, operating results, or financial condition.

Conflicts of interest

The directors of the Company are required by law to act honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company and to disclose any interests, which they may have in any project or opportunity of the Company. If a conflict of interest arises at a meeting of the board of directors, any director in a conflict will disclose his or her interest and abstain from voting on such matter. Conflicts, if any, will be subject to the procedures and remedies as provided under the BCBCA.

To the best of the Company's knowledge, and other than disclosed herein and in the Company's annual audited financial statements, there are no known existing or potential conflicts of interest between the Company and its directors and officers except that certain of the directors and officers may serve as directors and/or officers of other companies, and therefore it is possible that a conflict may arise between their duties to the Company and their duties as a director or officer of such other companies.

Currency risk

Currency risk relates to the risk that the fair values and future cash flows of the Company's financial instruments will fluctuate as a result of changes in foreign exchange rates. Exchange rate fluctuations will affect those parts of the Company's operations managed in USD dollars and consequently may impact the Company's financial results.
