Nextech3D.ai a Canadian Company is Unaffected by U.S. Trump Tariffs, Ensuring Uninterrupted Service for Customers and Investors

TORONTO, ON / ACCESS Newswire / March 12, 2025 / Nextech3D.ai

(OTCQB:NEXCF)(CSE:NTAR)(FSE:1SS), a leader in AI-powered 3D modeling solutions for Amazon in e-commerce, announces that despite recent changes in U.S. trade policies and the imposition of tariffs by President Trump, Nextech3D.ai assures its customers and investors that its goods and services will remain unaffected. While the company is domiciled in Canada, its operations, supply chain, and service offerings will not be impacted by these tariffs.

Nextech3D.ai specializes in the creation of digital goods, including high-quality 3D models for eCommerce, advanced digital mapping solutions, and an AI-powered suite for product photography. These innovative solutions help businesses enhance their online presence, streamline workflows, and provide immersive digital experiences and are not part of the current tariffs.

"After receiving many questions from both investors and customers we felt obliged to publicly state that our commitment to delivering high-quality products and services to our customers remains unchanged," said Evan Gappelberg, CEO of Nextech3D.ai. "We have strategically structured our supply chain and business model to ensure stability, efficiency, and cost-effectiveness, regardless of external trade fluctuations, although we will evaluate the future as it unfolds".

Nextech3D.ai continues to prioritize its customers and investors by maintaining competitive pricing and uninterrupted service. With a global strategy and operations, the company is well-positioned to navigate shifting global trade dynamics without passing on additional costs to consumers.

By proactively addressing concerns from both customers and investors, Nextech3D.ai reaffirms its strong market position and commitment to long-term growth and innovation.
