ONE WORLD LITHIUM NOW INTER LISTED ON THE OTCQB VENTURE MARKET

VANCOUVER, B.C., March 07, 2019. One World Lithium Inc. (OTCQB - OWRDF and CSE - OWLI) (“OWL”) (the “Company”) announces its common shares are trading on the OTCQB Venture Market today with the trading symbol OWRDF. The Company continues trading its common shares on the Canadian Securities Exchange (“CSE”) with the trading symbol OWLI.

The OTCQB Venture Market is owned and operated by the OTC Markets Group in New York which offers transparent trading for development stage Companies that are current in their financial reporting and regulatory requirements as well as management certification.

Doug Fulcher, CEO, noted “the Company traded 16 million common shares on the Canadian Securities Exchange in the last 12 months with the average trade being $0.16 CDN. I believe that inter listing on the OTCQB Venture market will expand our Company’s presence in the U.S. and international investment markets. This is fortuitous as One World Lithium plans to drill test significant targets on its 75,400 hectare Salar del Diablo lithium/brine property in the near future”.

As previously reported on February 19, 2019 the reverse circulation drill program entails 4,000 meters in twelve holes. Ten of the holes are designed to test three extensive geophysical anomalies that are consistent with a large lithium geochemical anomaly. Two holes are planned to test geochemical lithium anomalies that extend beyond the footprint of the geophysical survey area.
