"Komodo is thrilled to be added to the Netcoins Platform," said Ben Fairbank, General Manager at Komodo Platform. "Netcoins shares Komodo's vision of being more accessible to more people, by offering numerous convenient purchase options through its virtual ATM, OTC and voucher services. Komodo supporters can now use FIAT options to make their purchases of the native KMD coin. Komodo is a leading decentralized platform that offers a unique blend of privacy, security, scalability and interoperability. As blockchain technology becomes more widely acknowledged it is important that adoption is a primary focus. Being added to the Netcoins Platform helps Komodo bridge the gap between providers of technology and its consumers."

"The Komodo Platform is a welcome addition to our newly added lineup of cryptocurrencies. Komodo's technology is a game-changer as it allows users to easily launch their own secure, independent blockchain," said Netcoins CEO Mark Binns. "The exposure that Netcoins adds is unmatched in the industry. Netcoins gives the market a simple, easily accessible way to access tokens in the physical world. We look forward to welcoming more cryptocurrencies and coins to our Netcoins network soon."

Netcoins is receiving $25,000 USD from Komodo as a listing fee.
