Netcoins Completes $1 Million in Transactional Revenue in a Day; Netcoins Provides Transactional Revenue Update

VANCOUVER, British Columbia, July 17, 2018 -- GAR Limited. d/b/a/ Netcoins ("NETC" or the "Company") (CSE:NETC) is pleased to announce that it has completed $1 million in transactions in a single day. As a revenue focused company, this is another very significant accomplishment in our evolution.

From a modest start of $33,000 worth of transactions in a month in January 2017 to now completing $1 million in a single day, the growth trajectory of Netcoins continues to increase. Further, in July Netcoins has exceeded $3.3 million in transactions in the first 9 business days. Netcoins also received a $25k USD listing fee for Komodo in July.

"From $33,000 in a month, to over $14 million in 2017, and now our first $1 million of transactions in a single day, we continue to execute and deliver on our growth goals and strategy," said Netcoins CEO, Mark Binns. "Our retail business is driving revenue and enabling coin listing revenues while our OTC business is quickly becoming a driving force of our business. Our OTC target customer base includes crypto miners, crypto hedge fund managers, crypto brokers, high net worth individuals and so called "crypto whales" who need a fast, convenience and trustworthy way to buy and sell large amounts of crypto - and they are turning to Netcoins to fulfil this need. As a public company that is audited and regulated, we represent a safe and secure option for institutional clients while also being fast and nimble, which is highly valued in the quickly moving crypto space. We will also issue ongoing revenue updates as new milestones are reached in real time."

About the Company
