

Netcoins Chosen as 'Fiat to Crypto' Provider for CryptoCanucks.com

VANCOUVER, British Columbia, Feb. 21, 2019 -- Netcoins Holdings Inc. ("Netcoins" or the "Company") (CSE: NETC; OTC: GARLF; WKN: 1WJ) is pleased to announce that CryptoCanucks has chosen Netcoins as their provider to enable CryptoCanucks.com users to easily and directly buy crypto with Fiat.

Netcoins recently announced that it offers websites a turn-key solution for their visitors to buy crypto with fiat, allowing retail consumers and investor clients to purchase over twenty different cryptocurrencies. CryptoCanucks.com is one of the first Canadian companies to offer this additional service to their users. CryptoCanucks.com is launching this co-branded service to give its community a more efficient way to purchase crypto. The service is expected to be live in 4-6 weeks.

"CryptoCanucks.com is a perfect partner to offer this service," said Netcoins CEO, Mark Binns. "It makes complete sense for CryptoCanucks' savvy audience to have the ability to transact in a low friction way. This service is an adaption of our offline retail model where revenues are shared with the merchant, or in this case, the website. We intend to promote this service to regional, national and global media sites looking for new revenue streams via a turnkey solution with zero upfront investment."

"We at CryptoCanucks are thrilled for the partnership with Netcoins. This will allow our community to purchase cryptocurrencies with ease and peace of mind. One of our top priorities is to educate the masses on cryptocurrencies and eventually acquire digital assets with their new-found knowledge. We have made a significant step towards achieving this goal by partnering with Netcoins." – Jacques Yaakoub, Co-Founder & CEO at CryptoCanucks.
