

Legible Partners with ACCESS Europe to Bring eBooks and Audiobooks to Connected Vehicles

VANCOUVER, British Columbia, Dec. 16, 2024 -- Legible (CSE: READ) (OTCQB: LEBGF) (FSE: D0T) (“Legible” or “the Company”), an innovative online bookstore dedicated to accessible and immersive digital reading experiences, and ACCESS Europe GmbH are excited to announce that Legible’s solutions and content have been integrated with the ACCESS Twine™ for Car App Store, a leading global platform for in-vehicle digital content.

The ACCESS Twine™ for Car (Twine4Car) platform, designed to offer an all-encompassing in-car infotainment experience, is utilized by major automotive manufacturers worldwide and enables seamless access to entertainment and media, transforming the in-car experience. This partnership brings Legible’s extensive collection of eBooks and audiobooks directly to drivers and passengers of connected cars, enhancing their in-car entertainment options. With the integration of Legible’s digital content service in Twine4Car, users have access to a vast selection of popular and diverse eBook as well as audiobook titles directly from the comfort of their vehicles.

“This collaboration with ACCESS allows us to bring our mission of accessible, sustainable reading to the forefront of the automotive industry,” said Kaleeg Hainsworth, CEO of Legible. “We are thrilled to be part of the innovative Twine4Car platform, reaching drivers and passengers in an entirely new way. Together, we’re making it easier than ever for people to enjoy high-quality literature, whether they’re on the road or at home.”

The ACCESS Twine4Car App Store is a comprehensive media and entertainment platform that integrates video, audio, games, and now, Legible’s unique offerings of eBooks and audiobooks, into a single, cohesive interface within vehicles. Users can access Legible’s subscription options and exclusive offerings, including a wide selection of titles that support personal and professional growth, cultural awareness, and entertainment.

With its commitment to accessible reading, Legible aligns perfectly with the ACCESS mission to enhance connectivity and user experience in vehicles. This partnership underscores Legible’s expansion efforts and dedication to providing a unique and valuable resource for people on the go, reaching new subscribers everywhere.

“Our partnership with Legible underscores ACCESS Europe’s dedication to transforming the in-car experience with rich, user-focused digital content,” said Masahiro Aono, CEO of ACCESS Europe. “Integrating Legible’s extensive library of eBooks and audiobooks into ACCESS Twine™ for Car allows automotive OEMs to offer an enhanced infotainment option that engages both drivers and passengers, adding new value to the in-vehicle experience.”
