Everton Resources Inc. (TSX-V: EVR, Frankfurt: ERV) (“Everton” or the “Corporation”) said today it has cancelled its financing offering announced June 7, 2011 (the “Offering”).

“After reviewing market conditions, coupled with the fact Everton has sufficient cash and assets to continue its drilling program at its Ampliacion Pueblo Viejo (APV) property, we decided to withdraw the short form prospectus in the best interest of our shareholders and the company,” said Everton President and CEO Andre Audet.

“As our agreement to acquire Brigus Gold’s interest in the APV property (announced May 25, 2011) demonstrates, we have tremendous confidence in the property,” he said.

Mr. Audet said the company will re-visit its financing options at an appropriate time. For the time being, he said, Everton is advancing its drilling plans.
