April 7, 2025

Item 3: News Release

A news release was disseminated on April 8, 2025 via Newsfile.

Item 4: Summary of Material Change

On April 8, 2025, the Company announced that the British Columbia Ministry of Mining and Critical Minerals had issued an exploration drilling permit (the “Permit”) for the Company's Lara Volcanogenic Massive Sulfide (VMS) project on Vancouver Island, British Columbia.

Item 5: Full Description of Material Change

The Permit authorizes the Company to proceed with its planned 10,000-meter diamond drill program comprising 50 drill holes, which was initially announced in July 2024. The drill program is designed to provide both confirmation of the historical Lara VMS mineral resource estimate, as well as to provide infill drilling data necessary to complete an updated and current mineral resource estimate.
