STEARMAN SIGNS OPTION TO ACQUIRE 100% OF BRASSIE CREEK PROPERTY IN BC

VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA – January 15, 2025 – Stearman Resources Inc. (CSE:STMN) (“Stearman” or the “Company”) announces that it has entered into an option agreement to acquire a 100% interest in the Brassie Creek Property, consisting of 9 mineral claims covering 1,862 hectares, located 48 kilometres (km) west of Kamloops, British Columbia, prospective for copper, gold and silver.

The Property is located in a prolific copper producing area, including being 15 kms away for Teck Resources’ Highland Valley Copper Mine, the largest open-pit mine in Canada. Highland Valley has been producing copper, gold and molybdenum since 1962. The New Afton Mine is located 36 km east of the Property producing copper and gold since 2012 and Getty Copper’s Getty North prospect is located 17 km south of the Property.

The Property has had an extensive history of exploration since 1970, including some drilling from 1970 to 1976 and 1998 to 2000. In 2020, the current owner and optionor undertook a geophysical program of VLF and magnetometer surveys on the northern portion of the Property which supports further exploration to be undertaken.

The option agreement for the Property calls over a 4-year period for cash payments of $200,000 to the optionor, exploration expenditures of $54,000 and the issuance of 300,000 shares, with $2,500 and 50,000 shares to be delivered initially. The Company in the spring will consider an exploration program for the Property for 2025.

The Company is a mineral exploration company focused on the acquisition, exploration and development of mineral properties in Canada and the USA. The Company currently has an option on the Miniac Property in Quebec. which consists of 78 claims over 4,110 hectares located 35 kms north of Amos, Quebec, prospective for gold, zinc, copper and silver and now has an option on the Brassie Creek Property located west of Kamloops, BC.

The Company has granted further stock options to directors and officers, exercisable for 400,000 common shares at $0.05 each for three years, in accordance to the Company’s Stock Option Plan.
