COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

Compensation of Directors

The board of directors as a whole makes the determination as to the appropriate level of remuneration for the directors and officers of the Corporation. Remuneration is assessed and determined by taking into account such factors as the size of the Corporation and the level of compensation earned by directors and officers of companies of comparable size and industry.

Each of the Corporation's independent directors has not received any compensation for their services.

Executive officers of the Corporation who also act as directors of the Corporation do not receive any additional compensation for services rendered in such capacity, other than as paid by the Corporation to such executive officers in their capacity as executive officers. See "Compensation of Executive Officers".

The Corporation does not have a stock option plan for the granting of incentive stock options to the officers, employees and directors of the Corporation.

Compensation of Executive Officers

Securities legislation requires the disclosure of compensation received by each "Named Executive Officer" of the Corporation for the three most recently completed financial years. "Named Executive Officer" is defined by the legislation to mean (i) each of the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer of the Corporation, despite the amount of compensation of that individual, (ii) each of the Corporation's three most highly compensated executive officers, other than the Chief Executive Officer and the Chief Financial Officer, who were serving as executive officers at the end of the most recently completed financial year and whose total salary and bonus exceeds $150,000, and (iii) any additional individual for whom disclosure would have been provided under (ii) but for the fact that the individual was not serving as an executive officer of the Corporation at the end of the most recently completed financial year end of the Corporation.

"Executive Officer" is defined by the legislation to mean (i) the chair of the Corporation, (ii) a vice-chair of the Corporation, (iii) the President of the Corporation, (iv) a vice-president of the Corporation in charge of a principal business unit, division or function such as sales, finance or production, or (v) an officer of the Corporation or any of its subsidiaries or any other person who performed a policy-making function in respect of the Corporation.

During the Corporation's most recently completed financial year, the Corporation had three Named Executive Officers: David J. Hennigar, Chief Executive Officer; Richard C. Jones, Chief Financial Officer until November 10, 2009 and Lorne S. MacFarlane, Chief Financial Officer, who replaced Richard C. Jones on November 11, 2009. The aggregate cash compensation (including salaries, fees, directors fees, commissions, bonuses paid for services rendered during the most recently completed financial year, bonuses paid for services rendered in the previous year, and any compensation other than bonuses earned during the most recently completed financial year, the payment of which was deferred) paid to the Named Executive Officers (or corporations controlled by Named Executive Officers), in the capacity of Named Executive Officers, for the most recently completed financial year, was $83,293.
