

AQUARIUS SURGICAL TECHNOLOGIES OFFERS UNIQUE EQUIPMENT FINANCING THROUGH A PARTNERSHIP WITH DEXT CAPITAL

TORONTO, Ontario, November 07, 2019 - Aquarius Surgical Technologies Inc. \(ASTI:CSE\) ("ASTI" or "the Company"), the exclusive provider of a disruptive surgical laser system in the field of urology, is pleased to announce that it has forged a strategic partnership with Dext Capital Inc. ("Dext"), a leading US independent lessor focused on the healthcare industry. Dext will launch a unique healthcare leasing solution for ASTI's urology laser products, making them more accessible for prospective clients. Specifically, this solution provides clients with the capability of financing the acquisition of both the cutting-edge ASTI's laser systems and the corresponding consumables.

"This distinctive and unprecedented financing solution significantly leverages our competitive advantage to increase future ASTI's sales," commented Gordon Willox, Founder and President of ASTI. "Our clients will be able to allocate the required capital from their operating budget as opposed to the invariably limited traditional capital budget, giving them a greater probability to acquire ASTI's technologies."

In regards to the equity financing announced in the press release dated November 1, ASTI expects to facilitate a partial close in the next few weeks. The Company is well positioned to showcase its technologies in multiple national and international trade shows in the fields of urology and gynecology, scheduled to begin in January of 2020. Endorsed by respected Key Opinion Leaders in the field, ASTI is focused on an aggressive marketing strategy to expand its visibility in the North American market.
