1.2 Overall Performance

Description of Business

Imagin Medical Inc. (formerly Expedition Mining Inc.) is incorporated in the Province of British Columbia. On February 9, 2016, the Company completed the acquisition of BSS Life Sciences Inc. ("BSS"). BSS holds the intellectual property rights to a proprietary imaging technology developed for extremely accurate visualization of cancers. The Technology

Imagin Medical is a surgical imaging company focused on establishing a new standard of care in visualizing cancer during minimally invasive surgeries (MIS). The Company's first product, the i/Blue Imaging™ System, is based on advanced optics and light sensors and employs patented ultrasensitive imaging technology. The Company believes the i/Blue System, with easy-to-use imaging options, will significantly improve surgeons' ability to visualize cancerous cells for more accurate resection. The Company's initial focus is bladder cancer.

The i/Blue Imaging System is a device external to the body that attaches to an endoscope to emit both white and blue light during MIS. When used in combination with contrast agents, cancerous cells, including premalignant lesions and tumor tissue along the margins, begin to fluoresce within an hour or less. The i/Blue Imaging System provides the option to display, in real-time, the white and blue light images side-by-side. This advancement eliminates the surgeon's need to switch back and forth between the white and blue light images when locating and then resecting the cancer as needed with current technology.

Imagin's i/Blue Imaging System is comprised of two key, state-of-the-art components:

- The i/Blue Control Unit: contains a dual wave-length light source, a two-channel camera control unit, data recorder and power supply modules that allow simultaneous displays of white and blue light illumination in the interior of the bladder.
- Dual View Camera Handpiece: includes sophisticated optical filters that split the image into white and blue light channels, allowing simultaneous display of corresponding images on the surgical monitor. This patented technology compatible with most endoscopes on the market today and offers multiple real-time viewing options/images that better enable the surgeon to visualize and resect the cancer.

Benefits of the i/Blue Imaging System

- Simultaneous side-by-side white and blue light images
- No toggling back and forth between images
- Shows cancer in context within the bladder
- Enables surgeons to better visualize cancerous cells for more accurate resection
- Compatible with most endoscopes on the market
- Appropriate for physicians' offices

Future Development - Disruptive Technology /Multiple Markets

Imagin intends to build on the i/Blue technology, which currently works with hexaminolevulinate hydrochloride (HAL), and adapt it to other U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) approved contrast agents, such as Indocyanine green (ICG). These additional products will expand Imagin's market potential, facilitating entry into multiple endoscopic procedures, such as laparoscopic (general and gynecology), colorectal and thoracic.

Imagin is actively pursuing opportunities to acquire or distribute additional products such as disposable scopes, cancer biopsy devices and other products to complement its portfolio.

The Strategy

Imagin Medical will differentiate the bladder cancer imaging market by improving surgical technique that will lead to improved resections. This will be accomplished by the providing white and blue light images simultaneously, side-by-side on the monitor. Additionally, Imagin will be the low-cost producer and allow the company to make solid margin and price the i/Blue System at a significant discount from current products.

Imagin will continue to strengthen relationships with urologists and key opinion leaders, as well as engage in market development activities through virtual meeting, events, and demonstrations over the coming months. An example of this was the successful webinar showcasing the i/Blue Imaging System that included interviews and commentary from leading urologists and a financial analyst from CNBC regarding the on-going excitement in the healthcare environment. It remains Imagin's plan to differentiate the MIS surgical imaging market by focusing on state-of-the-art, easy-to-use, practical and cost-effective cancer visualization systems.

Once the i/Blue Imaging System is commercially available for urological indications, Imagin will focus on expanding the product platform from bladder cancer to laparoscopic (abdominal), thoracic and other minimally invasive procedures. The Company will partner with manufacturers of contrast agents that are already FDA-approved or in their final phase (Phase III) of FDA approval.

Imagin plans to add complementary products to expand its product portfolio. Because the i/Blue technology is adaptable to most endoscopes currently on the market, the Company will be of strategic interest to existing dominant endoscope manufacturers.

The Company continues to plan for commercialization via initial marketing programs, future participation in trade shows and focus groups with key opinion leaders, along with the development of physician champions and Centers of Excellence. While the 2021 AUA meeting transitioned to a virtual meeting due to Covid, the Company was able to achieve all of its goals by scheduling video meetings with Key Opinion Leading physicians and Investors to showcase the i/Blue System.

Intellectual Property

The Company, through its wholly owned subsidiary (BSS Life Sciences) has secured an exclusive license from Lawrence Livermore National Security, LLC (LLNS) to commercialize the technology invented by Dr. Stavros Demos. This license agreement includes three issued patents and one pending patent application on technology related to exclusive spectroscopic imaging for cancer and other medical applications. These include:

1. Issued U.S. Patent 7,149,567 - Near-Infrared Spectroscopic Tissue Imaging for Medical Applications.
2. Issued U.S. Patent 7,257,437 - Autofluorescence Detection and Imaging of Bladder Cancer Realized Through a Cystoscope.
3. Issued U.S. Patent 8,285,015 - Simultaneous Acquisition of Differing Image Types.
4. Issued U.S. Patent 10,182,708 - Simultaneous Acquisition of Differing Image Types.

Based on product refinement and development since the completion of the University of Rochester study and the innovative work being completed at Lighthouse Imaging, Imagin intends to file additional patent that the Company anticipates will broaden its intellectual property portfolio.

Product Development and Regulatory Approval

In 2021 the Company continues to eliminate non-essential expenses in all areas of its business. Cost-cutting measures, including company-wide salary reductions remained in place, as well as virtual operational meetings. Imagin, as well as our partners, supply channels and consultants, were affected by the current pandemic, pushing out our product completion by approximately nine months into late 2022.

In the past 12 months the Company has made significant progress in product development. As previously mentioned, the i/Blue System has successfully transitioned from the development stage to manufacturing with Lighthouse Imaging, our contract manufacturer, who will finalize the product design, move to pre-production units and pilot builds. Lighthouse has moved forward with documentation, as well as key device performance characteristics that have met technical design specifications using various testing techniques including, but not limited to, analytic design calculations, measurements of physical characteristics and testing by independent laboratories. Data from these independent lab tests is being combined with data from internal testing, engineering calculations, component suppliers and competitive device analysis, all of which will become the basis of the Company's documentation requirements and will be included with Imagin's FDA submission.

The Company will conduct first-in-human studies to demonstrate fluorescence when medical institutions resume clinical trials and products become available. The Company's plan is to showcase a unit with final optics design AUA 2022 meeting in May with key urologists.

Imagin believes that the imaging quality and cost reduction goals for the i/Blue Imaging System will be achieved and make blue light cystoscopy more accessible to hospitals and patients. The product will be highly manufacturable with a modular design that will become a basic platform for Imagin's current and future applications.

As previously reported, the Company met with the FDA twice to proactively discuss the i/Blue System's regulatory path. The content and feedback from these meetings have been instrumental as the Company continues to refine its regulatory strategy and complete the formal FDA submission. Imagin will ensure that the i/Blue System will be in compliance with FDA and international requirements, i.e., Quality System Regulation ISO 13485:2016 and Quality Management System (QMS).

1.11 Critical Accounting Estimates

In preparing financial statements, management has to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses. Based on historical experience, current conditions and expert advice, management makes assumptions that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances. These estimates and assumptions form the basis for judgments about the carrying value of assets and liabilities and reported amounts for revenues and expenses. Different assumptions would result in different estimates and actual results may differ from results based on these estimates. These estimates and assumptions are also affected by management's application of accounting policies. Critical accounting estimates are those that affect the consolidated financial statements materially and involve a significant level of judgment by management.

1.12 Financial and Other Instruments

The carrying value of cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities and convertible debt (debt host) approximate their fair values due to the short maturity of those instruments. The embedded derivative within the convertible note is carried measured at fair value.
