The following interim management's discussion and analysis ("MD&A") of the financial condition and results of the operations of Neural Therapeutics Inc. This MD&A has been prepared in compliance with the requirements of National Instrument 51-102 – Continuous Disclosure Obligations. This discussion should be read in conjunction with the audited financial statements of the Company for the year ended July 31, 2023, together with the notes thereto. The unaudited condensed consolidated interim financial statements have been prepared in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB"). Information contained herein is presented as of June 20, 2024, unless otherwise indicated.

For the purposes of preparing this MD&A, management, in conjunction with the Board of Directors, considers the materiality of information. Management, in conjunction with the Board of Directors, evaluates materiality with reference to all relevant circumstances, including potential market sensitivity.

Neural's business financial condition and results of operations may be further negatively affected by economic and other consequences from Russia's military action against Ukraine and the sanctions imposed in response to that action in late February 2022. Neural expects any direct impacts, of the pandemic and the military action in Ukraine, to the business to be limited; however, the indirect impacts on the economy and on the pharmaceutical industry could negatively affect the business and may make it more difficult for Neural to raise equity or debt financing. There can be no assurance that Neural will not be impacted by adverse consequences that may be brought about on its business, results of operations, financial position, and cash flows in the future.

Neural's board of directors approved the release of this MD&A on June 20, 2024.

BUSINESS DESCRIPTION

Neural is a Canadian-based ethnobotanical drug discovery/development company focused on developing products and conducting research with psychoactive plants. The first being San Pedro a cactus containing mescaline, a naturally occurring hallucinogen that is found in certain psychoactive plants and has been in continuous use for at least 5,700 years in South America, namely Peru, Bolivia and Columbia . Neural intends to collect and aggregate data over the next 12 months to refine its pharmaceutical drug development and natural health product pipeline. To date, Neural's activities to develop its business focused on product and intellectual property development, conducting initial research and development to guide its drug development strategy, and various corporate and business development activities. Neural's registered office and corporate headquarters are in Canada, but Neural may conduct its research and development efforts, including, cultivation, extraction, processing, product manufacturing, pre-clinical and clinical trials, in jurisdictions outside of Canada, United States and Peru. Neural only works with parties who hold or will obtain all necessary permits and licenses to operate in the jurisdictions where they are located during the time they are engaged by Neural.

Neural is a development stage company and has not earned any revenue to date and has focused on developing its business in two main platforms as follows: (1) pharmaceutical pathway; and (2) nutraceutical pathway, each of which are briefly described below.

Pharmaceutical Pathway (with mescaline)

Neural is taking steps to create mescaline-based products to compete in the emerging psychedelics market. Neural is in the process of developing a line of San Pedro-derived products that will help with various health objectives. The initial research and development work will focus on the active ingredients' reproducibility by means of molecular and DNA analysis, identity testing, specifications and formulation. As noted above, Neural entered into agreement with Cayetano University to assist with the fundamental research and development activities to enable submission of an investigative new drug ("IND") application.

The second fundamental research and development activity is preparation for the initial safety studies (being pre-clinical and toxicology tests to that the standard of reasonable expectation of safety for human consumption is met). Neural is in the process of securing relationships with various contract research organizations ("CRO") to assist with those efforts. At present, Neural is in advanced discussions with several potential CROs in various jurisdictions. In connection with the preparation to conduct the studies, Neural also intends to establish a relationship with manufacturing partners and to test its supply chain, extraction, and product development capabilities for such mescaline containing products. The efforts to commence these studies are ongoing and are subject to Neural securing the contractual relationships with parties which hold necessary permits and have the capabilities to conduct such research and development efforts.

As a result of its planned initial pre-clinical and clinical research efforts, Neural intends to carefully select specific drug candidates and diseases that it believes offer the greatest opportunity for therapeutic efficacy and commercial success. In consultation with various academic institutions, researchers, clinicians, and psychedelic industry opinion leaders, the goal of Neural's pharmaceutical division is to design clinical development programs that have clearly defined and achievable endpoints, that are expected to increase Neural's chance of commercial success.

Nutraceutical Pathway

In parallel with pursuing clinical research studies, Neural aims to investigate utilization of the pulp fiber from the cactus to manufacture products that would be used for weight loss supplements, dietary supplements, dietary fiber and diabetic food. Neural intends to partner with companies which have nutraceutical product manufacturing capabilities, to develop such products and secure required regulatory approvals to market such products in the United States and Canada. Neural is, at present, among very few companies that would offer cactus-based supplement products and, to Neural's knowledge, the only company to offer mescaline-free dietary supplements and NHPs that are based on the San Pedro cactus, and Neural believes that such position will give it an early-mover advantage in this regard. Demonstrating product safety at pre-determined levels of dosage is an integral part of the regulatory process to register its products with the FDA and Health Canada.

SIGNIFICANT TRANSACTIONS AND FINANCINGS

On September 21, 2023, Neural completed the first tranche of the Series A Financing for gross proceeds of $293,346 through issuance of 9,778,209 common shares at a price of $0.03. ## Interim Management's Discussion &amp; Analysis – Quarterly Highlights

For the nine months ended April 30, 2024

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

- An increase in salaries, wages and benefits of $11,408 as a result of regularly salaries and wages paid and the deferral of Neural's management team's salaries agreed to by such members of the management team as well as the reclass from salaries wages and benefits to research expenses allocation for the period;
- An increase in consulting fees of $13,055 as a result of increased in contracting consultants to assist with the business development, preparation for public listing (including the Plan of Arrangement) and certain scientific activities;

Operating expenses during the nine months ended April, 2024 were $456,999 compared to $892,709 during the corresponding nine months ended April 30, 2023. This decrease was primarily due to the following:

- A decrease in salaries, wages and benefits of $3,100 as a result of deferral of Neural's management team's salaries agreed to by such members of the management team;
- A decrease in consulting fees of $25,243 as a result of decreased in contracting consultants to assist with the business development, preparation for public listing (including the Plan of Arrangement) and certain scientific activities;

LIQUIDITY AND CAPITAL RESOURCES

Neural's financial success is reliant on management's ability to identify and evaluate suitable growth and acquisition opportunities and maximizing the potential of these opportunities. In order to fund future growth opportunities and to corporate overhead, Neural may seek additional financing through debt or equity offerings. Any equity offering will result in dilution to the ownership interests of Neural's shareholders and may result in dilution to the value of such interests.

Interim Management's Discussion &amp; Analysis – Quarterly Highlights

For the nine months ended April 30, 2024

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

Liquidity risk is the risk that Neural will not have sufficient cash resources to meet its financial obligations as they come due. The ability of Neural to continue as a going concern is dependent on its ability to obtain funding, manage cash flows, restructure borrowings and recover funds loaned to borrowers that have currently been provided against or recover collateral that secured those loans. There is significant uncertainty as to whether Neural will be able to continue as a going concern and therefore, whether it will continue its normal business activities and realize its assets and extinguish its liabilities in the normal course of business and at the amounts stated in the condensed interim financial statements. These condensed interim financial statements do not include adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded asset amounts or to the amounts and classification of liabilities that might be necessary should Neural not continue as a going concern. In the short term, the continued operations of Neural may be dependent upon its ability to obtain additional financing. Without this additional financing, Neural may be unable to meet its obligations as they come due. There can be no certainty that Neural can obtain these funds, in which case any investment in Neural may be lost.

As at April 30, 2024, Neural had working capital deficiency of $113,713 (July 31, 2023 – working capital deficiency of $122,555), had accumulated losses of $3,927,711 (July 31, 2023 - $3,470,712). Neural expects to be able to meet its financial obligations in the near future but intends to undertake additional capital raises and seek deferral of forgiveness of some of its accrued liabilities to remedy the working capital deficiency.

Cash Flow Operating activities

Net cash used in operating activities during the nine months ended April 30, 2024 totaled $297,283 compared to cash used of $420,100 in the nine months ended April 30, 2023. This decrease in net cash used in operating activities was primarily due to reduction of certain accounts payable and accrued liabilities offset by reclassification of certain payables as long-term liabilities during the nine months ended April 30, 2024, and decreased in business activity and preparation for public listing.

Financing activities

During the nine months ended April 30, 2024, net cash generated in financing activities totaled $47,414 compared to net cash generated of $341,685 in the corresponding prior period 2023. The decrease is primarily due to a decrease in the amount of proceeds from issuances of shares and warrants.

Foreign currency exchange risk

Foreign exchange risk is the risk that the fair value or future cash flows of a financial instrument will fluctuate because of changes in the foreign exchange rates. Neural enters into foreign currency purchase transactions and has assets and liabilities that are denominated in foreign currencies and thus is exposed to the financial risk fluctuations arising from changes in foreign exchange rates and the degree of volatility of these rates. Neural does not currently use derivative instruments to reduce its exposure to foreign currency risk.

An increase (decrease) of 10% in the currency exchange rate of the Canadian dollar versus US dollar would have impacted Neural net loss by $nil (July 31, 2023 - $nil) as a result of Neural's exposure to currency exchange rate fluctuations.

CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

Neural includes cash and cash equivalents and shareholders' equity, comprising issued common shares, contributed surplus and deficit, in the definition of capital. Neural manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it, based on the funds available to Neural. Neural's objectives when managing its capital are to safeguard Neural's ability to continue as a going concern in order to support ongoing initiatives, to provide sufficient working capital to meet its ongoing obligations, and to pursue potential acquisitions.

RISK FACTORS

An investment in the Company's securities is highly speculative and involves numerous and significant risks. Such investment should be undertaken only by investors whose financial resources are sufficient to enable them to assume these risks and who have no need for immediate liquidity in their investment. Prospective investors should carefully consider the risk factors that have affected, and which in the future are reasonably expected to affect, the Company and its financial position. Please refer to the section entitled "Risk Factors" in the Company's Annual MD&A for the fiscal year ended July 31, 2023, available on SEDAR+ at www.sedarplus.ca.
