Quaterra Announces Terry Eyton Joins Board of Directors

VANCOUVER, BC--(Marketwired - March 27, 2015) - Quaterra Resources Inc. (TSX VENTURE: QTA) (OTCQX: QTRRF) today announced that Terry Eyton has been appointed to the Company's Board of Directors.

"We welcome Mr. Eyton to Quaterra's Board," says Quaterra Chairman Thomas Patton. "Mr. Eyton's professional career encompasses a depth in financial, regulatory and compliance matters across many sectors including mining. We look forward to his contribution to Quaterra and its Board."

Mr. Eyton is a Chartered Accountant and currently Chief Financial Officer of Peninsula Merchant Syndications Corp. Prior to his appointment at Peninsula he was a partner with Topping Eyton Partners, a public accounting firm in Vancouver. Mr. Eyton graduated in business administration from Lakehead University in 1967, obtaining the designation of chartered accountant in 1971 and was elected to the fellowship of the Institute of Chartered Accountants of B.C. in 1983. He graduated from the Institute of Corporate Directors, Directors Education Program in 2008.

The Company also announced that Anthony Walsh has resigned from the Quaterra Board of Directors.

"On behalf of the Board I would like to extend our sincere thanks to Mr. Walsh for his valuable contribution as a Board member of Quaterra during a difficult period for the Company," says Mr. Patton. "We wish him well in his future endeavors."

The Company announced the granting of 200,000 stock options, with 100,000 going to Mr. Eyton and the balance to a consultant of the Company pursuant to the Company's stock option plan. The options may be exercised at a price of $0.05 per share for a five-year period.

On behalf of the Board of Directors,

Steven Dischler, President & CEO
Quaterra Resources Inc.
