

Quaterra Announces Resignation of President and CEO

Vancouver, British Columbia--(Newsfile Corp. - February 2, 2021) - Quaterra Resources Inc. (OTCQB: QTRRF) (TSXV: QTA) ("Quaterra" or the "Company") today announced that Gerald Prosalendis has, for personal reasons, resigned as President and CEO and as a director of the Company. Dr. Thomas Patton, Chairman and Founder of the Company, will assume the role of interim President and CEO of the Company.

"We would like to thank Gerald for his leadership during difficult market conditions and the progress the Company has made with its projects in a complex strategic and operating environment," says Quaterra Chairman Tom Patton.

About the Yerington Copper Project, Nevada

Quaterra's Yerington Copper Project is located in the historic Yerington Copper District, a mining-friendly jurisdiction with good infrastructure and a history of copper production, about 70 miles southeast of Reno, Nevada. It comprises the MacArthur oxide and sulfide deposit; the Yerington pit sulfide and oxide deposit previously mined by Anaconda; the Bear porphyry copper deposit; and several exploration targets. The Company has reported oxide and sulfide resources at both MacArthur and the Yerington pit, and the 2012 PEA at MacArthur, all prepared under National Instrument 43-101. The Company also owns valuable water rights in the district.
