

Rektron Group Provides Management Update

VANCOUVER, British Columbia, March 25, 2025 – Rektron Group Inc. (CSE:REK.U; FRA:F75) ("Rektron" or the "Company"), a global commodity trading group with subsidiaries that specialize in trading energy, metals, and energy transition commodities, announces that Moises Michan Portillo has been removed from his position as Chief Operating Officer of the Company, effective immediately. Mr. Michan Portillo served as Chief Operating Officer of the Company pursuant to the terms of a consulting services agreement between the Company and Tanridge Capital Limited, which agreement has been terminated.

This decision follows a comprehensive internal review conducted by an investigative committee (the "Committee") established by the Company's Board of Directors in accordance with the Company's corporate governance policies and applicable regulatory requirements. Based on the Committee's findings, the Board determined that this leadership change was in the best interests of the Company.

"Rektron is committed to upholding the highest standards of corporate governance, transparency, and accountability," said Atanas Kolarov, Chief Executive Officer of Rektron. "Following a thorough review process, the Board determined that a leadership transition was necessary to align with the Company's strategic priorities."

Rektron has initiated the process of identifying a suitable replacement for the role of Chief Operating Officer and will provide further updates once available. In the interim, Rektron's senior management team will oversee operational continuity to ensure business stability and strategic execution.
