VICTORY RESOURCES CORPORATION ANNOUNCES SHARE CONSOLIDATION AND NAME CHANGE TO VICTORY BATTERY METALS CORP.

VANCOUVER, BC, CANADA (December 22, 2022) – Victory Resources Corporation (CSE: VR) (FWB: VR61) (OTC: VRCFF) (“Victory” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that it intends to proceed with a name change to “Victory Battery Metals Corp.” (the “Name Change”) and consolidation of its common shares on the basis of three (3) pre-consolidation common shares for one (1) post-consolidation common share of the Company (the “Share Consolidation”). The Board of Directors approved the Name Change and Share Consolidation on December 16, 2022.

The Company currently has 127,611,222 common shares issued and outstanding. Accordingly, once the Share Consolidation is effective, the Company will have 42,537,074 common shares issued and outstanding, assuming there are no other changes in the issued capital of the Company.

The Company intends to also proceed with consolidating its outstanding options and warrants on a ratio of three (3) to one (1), with the result that each consolidated option and warrant will entitle the holder to acquire one common shares at an exercise price of three (3) times its original exercise price.

The Share Consolidation is being proposed in order to provide the Company with increased flexibility to seek additional financing opportunities and is subject to the approval of the Canadian Securities Exchange. The effective date for the Name Change and Consolidation will be December 28th 2022, and the Record Date will be December 29th 2022.

Forward Looking Statements

Certain information set forth in this news release may contain forward-looking statements that involve substantial known and unknown risks and uncertainties. All statements other than statements of historical fact are forward-looking statements, including, without limitation, statements regarding future financial position, business strategy, use of proceeds, corporate vision, proposed acquisitions, partnerships, joint-ventures and strategic alliances and co-operations, budgets, cost and plans and objectives of or involving the Company. Such forward-looking information reflects management's current beliefs and is based on information currently available to management. Often, but not always, forward-looking statements can be identified by the use of words such as "plans", "expects", "is expected", "budget", "scheduled", "estimates", "forecasts", "predicts", "intends", "targets", "aims", "anticipates" or "believes" or variations (including negative variations) of such words and phrases or may be identified by statements to the effect that certain actions "may", "could", "should", "would", "might" or "will" be taken, occur or be achieved. A number of known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors may cause the actual results or performance to materially differ from any future results or performance expressed or implied by the forward-looking information. These forward-looking statements are subject to numerous risks and uncertainties, certain of which are beyond the control of the Company including, but not limited to, the impact of general economic conditions, industry conditions and dependence upon regulatory approvals. Readers are cautioned that the assumptions used in the preparation of such information, although considered reasonable at the time of preparation, may prove to be imprecise and, as such, undue reliance should not be placed on forward-looking statements. The Company does not assume any obligation to update or revise its forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events, or otherwise, except as required by securities laws.
