The Company was evaluating two projects within a base metal rich area of central Newfoundland, home to formerly producing world-class base metal deposits at Buchans and the currently producing Duck Pond zinc-copper mine owned and operated by Teck Corporation. The Company was exploring primarily for zinc-lead-copper-silver-gold mineral resources within its properties with the objective of identifying commercially exploitable mineralization. The Company is not pursuing either of these opportunities or any other exploration opportunity at this time.

The Company's properties were at an "exploration stage." The Company has no producing properties, no operating income, or cash flow. To date, the Company is dependent on the equities market to finance all of its activities and it will continue to rely on this source of funding for its ongoing working capital requirements.

(See new releases March 25, May 30, and November 18, 2014 at www.sedar.com) On March 31, 2014, the Company incorporated a wholly owned subsidiary under the BC Company Act called Cannabinoid Capital Corporation (Cannabinoid). Cannabinoid was incorporated to acquire a project of merit; if, as, or when identified during our evaluation of this industry. However, as of the date hereof, the Company is not pursuing this opportunity. The Company has not changed its business from junior mining to the medical marijuana industry or the hemp industry, and to date, neither the Company nor Cannabinoid has engaged in any transaction in such industries. To date, the Company's capital expenditures have been under $5,000 for the incorporation of Cannabinoid and associated legal fees. The registered office of Cannabinoid is 1001, 1010 Howe Street Vancouver, BC, V6Z 1P5.

The Company's business is managed by the directors and officers and augmented by independent professionals retained to advise the Company on its exploration programs and business. The Company will pursue potential opportunities to create value through a corporate transaction.

Related Party Transactions

Related parties include directors, officers, close family members, certain consultants and enterprises that are controlled by these individuals as well as certain persons performing similar functions. Related parties include Michael Lerner, Balu Gopalakrishnan, and Binyomin Posen as members of the board of directors. In addition, Michael Lerner has been appointed as Chief Executive Officer and Chief Financial Officer.

In accordance with IAS 24, key management personnel are those persons having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the activities of the Company directly or indirectly, including any directors (executive and non-executive) of the Company. Remuneration of directors and key management personnel of the Company for the nine-month period ended January 31, 2020 and 2019 was:

	2020	2019
	$	$
Management fees	-	-

As at January 31, 2020, $31,500 (April 30, 2019 - $35,000) was included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities for consulting services provided by 1820546 Ontario Inc. a company operated by the Chief Executive Officer of the Company. As at April 30, 2018, $356,732 was included in accounts payable and accrued liabilities for management services provided by the previous Chief Executive Officer of the Company. This amount remains outstanding in full, but is not considered a related party transaction given that the previous Chief Executive Officer of the Company resigned from his position during the year ended April 30, 2019. All amounts due to related parties are on account or operating activity and are subject to normal trade terms.

Financial Condition

Cash Flow

As at January 31, 2020, the Company held cash and equivalents of $85,765 (April 30, 2019 - $1,964). Cash of $145,000 was raised via a private placement of 290,000,000 common shares on July 23, 2019. Cash was used to reduce payables and pay operating expenses, mostly related to working with regulators to solve deficiencies in the Company's public listing.

Critical Accounting Estimates and Changes in Accounting Policies

All significant critical accounting estimates are fully disclosed in Note 4 of the interim consolidated financial statements for the nine-months ended January 31, 2020, and 2019.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The Company had negative working capital of as of January 31, 2020 of $882,135 (April 30, 2019 - negative working capital of $966,665). The Company's held cash and cash equivalents as at January 31, 2020 of $85,765 (April 30, 2019 - $1,964).

Management is currently reviewing alternative sources of capital to meet its obligations and short term working capital requirements. While the Company plans to continue to monitor closely its spending, conditions in the capital markets continue to make it difficult for early stage exploration companies to raise additional capital. The Company may require substantial additional capital to fund any new project or to advance the exploration projects.

Historically, the Company has used the net proceeds from issuances of its securities to provide sufficient funds for it to meet its near-term exploration and development plans and other contractual obligations when due. However, given the current market conditions affecting the junior mining sector, the current trading price of the Company's common shares and other uncertainties discussed herein, there can be no assurance that the Company will be able to obtain sufficient additional funds on favorable terms, or at all, in order to carry out its objectives. As mentioned elsewhere in this MD&A, the Company is evaluating various strategic alternatives and, if it decides to pursue any such alternative, it may also require additional funds to carry out its strategic plans in amounts that cannot be determined as of the date hereof, which funds may also be unavailable to the Company on favorable terms or at all.

Financial Instruments and Financial Risk Factors

International financial reporting standards require that the Company disclose information about the fair value of its financial assets and liabilities. Fair value estimates are made at the statement of financial position date, based on relevant market information and information about the financial instrument. These estimates are subjective in nature and involve uncertainties in significant matters of judgment and therefore cannot be determined with precision. Changes in assumptions could significantly affect these estimates.

Fair value measurements are classified using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements. As at January 31, 2020 and April 30, 2019, the Company has no financial instruments carried at fair value to classify in the fair value hierarchy.

As at January 31, 2020 and April 30, 2019, carrying amounts of cash and cash equivalents, amounts receivable, accounts payable and accrued liabilities on the statement of financial position approximate fair market value because of the limited term of these instruments.

The Company's risk exposures and the impact on the Company's financial instruments are summarized below. There have been no changes in the risks, objectives, policies and procedures from previous periods.

(a) Credit Risk

The Company's credit risk is primarily attributable to cash and cash equivalents. The Company has no significant concentration of credit risk arising from operations. Management believes that the credit risk concentration with respect to cash and cash equivalents, and financial instruments included in amounts receivable is remote.

(b) Liquidity Risk

The Company's approach to managing liquidity risk is to ensure that it will have sufficient liquidity to meet its obligations when due. As at January 31, 2020, the Company had cash and cash equivalents of $85,765 (April 30, 2019 - $1,964) available to settle current liabilities of $971,248 (April 30, 2019 - $970,209). The Company's accounts payable are subject to normal trade terms.

(c) Market Risk

The Company is exposed to the following market risks:

(i) Interest Rate Risk

The Company has no cash and cash equivalents balances and no variable interest-bearing debt. The Company's current policy is to invest excess cash in investment-grade short-term deposit certificates issued by banking institutions. The Company periodically monitors the investments it makes and is satisfied with the credit ratings of its banks.

(ii) Foreign Exchange Risk

While the Company's functional currency is the Canadian dollar, major purchases could be transacted in Canadian dollars or United States dollars. As at January 31, 2020, the Company does not hold foreign currency balances.

(iii) Price Risk

The Company is exposed to price risk with respect to commodity prices. The Company closely monitors commodity prices to determine the appropriate course of action to be taken by the Company.

(d) Sensitivity Analysis

The Company may hold balances in United States dollars that give rise to foreign exchange risk. Based on management's knowledge and experience of the financial markets, the Company does not believe there would be any material movements as a result of changes in interest rates.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

As at January 31, 2020, there were no off-balance sheet arrangements.

Outstanding Share Data

As at January 31, 2020, and at the date of this MD&A, the Company had 373,690,890 common shares issued and outstanding (April 30, 2019 - 83,690,890 common shares issued and outstanding). The Company had no warrants and no stock options outstanding as at January 31, 2020 or at the date of this MD&A.

Risk Factors

Until a business combination is completed, the Company's risk factors are those related to a successful corporate transaction. The ability of the Company to continue operations is dependent upon its ability to find and close a corporate transaction. Other risk exposures and the impact on the Company's financial instruments are summarized below.

The risks, objectives, policies and procedures from previous years have been adjusted to reflect the pursuit of a corporate transaction.

Dependence on Key Individuals

The Company's business and operations are dependent on retaining the services of a small number of key individuals. The success of the Company is, and will continue to be, to a significant extent, dependent on the expertise and experience of these individuals. The loss of one or more of these individuals could have a materially adverse effect on the Company. The Company does not maintain insurance on any of its key individuals.

Capital Management

The Company considers its capital to consist of shareholders' equity. The Company manages its capital structure and makes adjustments to it, based on the funds available to the Company, in order to support the pursuit of a corporate transaction. The Board does not establish quantitative return on capital criteria for Management, but rather relies on the expertise of the Company's Management to sustain future development of the business.

The Company will continue to assess corporate opportunities with the intent to realize value.

Management reviews its capital management approach on an ongoing basis and believes that this approach, given the relative size of the Company, is reasonable. A significant change in the Company's approach to capital management in the year ended April 30, 2019 was the change to officers and directors.

The incoming group is currently pursuing alternatives to finance the Company. The Company and its subsidiary are not currently subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

Corporate Transactions

The Company could pursue corporate transactions with the ultimate goal to effect a business combination. There is no assurance that such a transaction could be reached or, even if a transaction is entered into, the transaction will close on the disclosed terms or at all.
