

2014 Information Circular

solicited by management for April 3, 2014 AGM

For registered holders, this Information Circular is prepared under the notice-and-access rules in NI 54-101. Accordingly, it is being posted online instead of being mailed out. Shareholders may obtain a paper copy by: a) e-mailing a request to inquiries@glenbriar.com; b) faxing a request to Glenbriar at +1 (403) 234-7310; c) calling toll free to Valiant Trust at +1 (866) 313-1872; or d) mailing a request to Secretary, Glenbriar Technologies Inc., c/o Proxy Dept., Valiant Trust Company, 310, 606 - 4th St SW, Calgary, Alberta T2P 1T1. A request for a paper copy should be sent so that it is received by Glenbriar or Valiant by March 9, 2014 in order to allow sufficient time for the shareholder to receive the paper copy and return the proxy by its due date. Shareholders are reminded to review these online materials when voting. This Information Circular is included in the mailing to non-registered shareholders because Broadridge's pricing policies make notice-and-access uneconomic for small issuers.

Management Solicitation of Proxies

Glenbriar Technologies Inc. ("Glenbriar") management provides this Circular to solicit proxies for use at the Annual Meeting of Shareholders to be held as set forth in the Notice of Meeting. Information is given as of February 20, 2014. Glenbriar uses and pays intermediaries and agents to send proxy-related materials to all registered and non-registered owners rather than sending those materials directly.

Voting and Proxies

To vote at the meeting, you must carefully follow the applicable instructions set forth below:

1. Registered shareholder – If you are a registered shareholder, your name and address will appear on a label on the Glenbriar Proxy Form sent to you at the address shown on the shareholder register. A registered shareholder may vote in person or by proxy. A registered shareholder may appoint a proxy by completing the Glenbriar Proxy Form and faxing it to (403) 233-2857 or delivering or mailing it to the Secretary of Glenbriar, c/o Proxy Dept., Valiant Trust Company, Suite 310, 606 - 4th St SW, Calgary, Alberta T2P 1T1, or to Glenbriar, Suite 1100, 736 – 8 Ave SW, Calgary, Alberta T2P 1H4 (fax 403-234-7310), up to the last business day before the meeting, or by personal delivery to the Chairman at the meeting.
2. Non-registered shareholder – If you are a non-registered shareholder, your name and address will appear on the Voting Instruction Form (VIF) sent to you by Broadridge on behalf of your bank, broker or trust company. A non-registered shareholder may only vote or appoint a proxy by mail, phone, fax or on the Internet in accordance with the VIF. Broadridge submits the vote or proxy appointment to Glenbriar on your behalf. You must submit your vote or proxy appointment within the time limits shown on the VIF. If you or a person you designate plan to attend the meeting, you must use the VIF to appoint yourself or that person as proxy to have voting rights at the meeting.

You may revoke a Proxy Form or VIF by completing a new form or other written notice duly delivered in the same manner as the original form. A corporation should sign under corporate seal, or by a duly authorized officer or attorney. All Proxy Forms and VIFs properly received will be voted as specified. Robert Matheson and Christine Padaric, named in the Proxy Form or VIF, are the Chairman and Secretary of Glenbriar. If no direction is given, the proxy will vote "FOR" approval of that matter. You may appoint a different person (including yourself), who need not be a shareholder, to represent you as proxy by inserting that person's name in the blank space provided on the Proxy Form or VIF.

Both the Proxy Form (for registered shareholders) and the VIF (for non-registered shareholders) grant discretionary authority to the proxy for any amendments or variations to matters referred to in the Notice of Annual Meeting or this Circular, or any other matters that properly come before the meeting.

Voting Shares and Principal Shareholders

Registered holders of Glenbriar Common Shares at the close of business on February 20, 2014 may vote. To exercise your rights as a non-registered holder, you must follow the procedures set forth in "Voting and Proxies" above. You may vote in person or by proxy. A proxy need not be a shareholder. If you transfer shares before the meeting, and the transferee establishes ownership and demands at least 10 days before the meeting to be included on the list of eligible voters, the right to vote those shares passes to the transferee.

The following persons own or control, directly or indirectly, more than 10% of the 48,421,510 Common Shares issued and outstanding:

From 2008 until December 2013, Glenbriar operated an employee share purchase plan which was open to employees and directors. Participants could contribute up to $20,000 per plan year to purchase Glenbriar common shares in the open market or from treasury. Glenbriar then matched those contributions with shares from treasury by private placement on a quarterly basis. Glenbriar recorded stock compensation expense under the plan of $9,193 in fiscal 2013 (2012 - $5,823), each issuance being at the greater of $0.05 or the closing price on CSE on the day prior to each issuance. See note 8(c) of Notes to Financial Statements for the year ended September 30, 2013. No directors participated in the plan in 2013, and one officer received $1,200 in benefits from the plan in 2013. Directors who are employees receive no additional compensation for serving as directors. There are no options or warrants outstanding, and Glenbriar has not actively maintained a stock option plan since 2003.

Glenbriar relies upon the exemption in section 6.1 of National Instrument 52-110, which reduces the reporting obligations and composition requirements for Audit Committees of venture issuers.

A. Audit Committee Members

Certain directors may provide services to Glenbriar from time to time for remuneration, whether as employees, officers, independent contractors or agents, which services may place them in direct conflict with Glenbriar. Under the Alberta Business Corporations Act, directors with conflicts must disclose the conflict and may also have to abstain from voting on matters related to the conflict. Glenbriar seeks to reduce these conflicts through disclosure, independent approval from disinterested directors, and reducing relationships to written contracts when deemed appropriate by the board of directors. See “Related Party Transactions” in the Management Discussion & Analysis and notes 4, 7, 10 and 15 of the Notes to the Financial Statements for the year ended September 30, 2013.

Messrs. Ross and Henderson are independent directors. Mr. Tijman stepped down as CFO on December 31, 2013, but securities regulations do not consider him independent until 3 years have passed since he was an executive officer. Messrs. Robert and Glenn Matheson are full time officers and principal shareholders of Glenbriar, and are thus not considered to be independent. See “Voting Shares and Principal Shareholders” above. All directors and officers are subject to the usual statutory and common law fiduciary duties incumbent on all officers and directors under corporate, securities and employment law. Any arrangements between Glenbriar and its officers and directors are subject to disclosure by the contracting party and approval by the disinterested directors.

Corporate Governance

Glenbriar adopted a Corporate Code of Conduct on October 1, 2011. The Code of Conduct is binding on all employees, officers and directors, and encourages and promotes a culture of ethical business conduct. Outside directorships are included in the principal occupation section under “Election of Directors” above. The Audit Committee currently oversees corporate governance and executive compensation oversight functions as part of its mandate, including periodic review of nominations for, composition of and effectiveness of the board members. See “Audit Committee” above.
