

Glenbriar announces clarifications to Circular

CALGARY, AB, November 16, 2017 — Glenbriar Technologies Inc. (CSE: GTI) today announced the following clarifications to the Information Circular dated November 2, 2017 in connection with the Special Meeting of Shareholders to be held on December 4, 2017:

1. Glenbriar relies on the exemption in MI 61-101, s. 5.5(b), which provides that as a venture issuer, Glenbriar is not required to obtain a formal valuation relating to the proposed transaction.
2. The second sentence on page 5 of the Circular regarding the “very high likelihood of success” if a shareholder vote to approve an amalgamation of Glenbriar and Uniserve were held and the subsequent paragraph regarding a takeover bid if the proposed special resolution is rejected by a majority of the minority are removed.
3. The share ownership for Uniserve shown in the Circular refers to Glenbriar shares “owned or controlled” by Uniserve, which includes some shares which Uniserve has arranged to purchase, but for which it has not taken title. Those shares will either be owned by, or deemed to be owned by, Uniserve at the meeting and have thus been categorized as “controlled” by Uniserve, and will be excluded when the “majority of the minority” vote is tabulated at the meeting.

An Amended Information Circular incorporating these changes will be posted on Sedar and on the CSE and Glenbriar websites.

“Glenbriar management regards these changes as housekeeping amendments which have no material impact on the proposed transaction, and continues to strongly recommend acceptance of the special resolution,” noted Robert Matheson, CEO of Glenbriar.
