Item 5. Full Description of Material Change

VANCOUVER, British Columbia – December 10, 2020, - Planet Ventures Inc. (TSX-V: PXI; OTC: PNXPF; FSE: P6U1) (“Planet” or the “Company”) is pleased with the Canadian Federal Government's recent introduction of Bill C-13, which seeks to legalize single-event wagering.

“This is an exciting development that Planet Ventures deeply supports” says Zula Kropivnitski, Chief Financial Officer of Planet Ventures. “Canada’s Minister of Justice and its Attorney General’s decision to introduce this important legislation in aid of single-event sports betting in their jurisdiction should greatly affect the gaming sector in Canada in a very positive way. This is a great decision for Canadian businesses, and it will go a long way in boosting the entertainment industry in this Country.”

As an investment issuer currently focused on eSports and eGaming, the Company has been exploring numerous possible investments in developing video-gaming platforms that would allow wagering on the outcome of a single 1 versus 1 video-game match. If approved, this legislation would allow Planet to launch such a platform in multiple markets including Canada and the United Kingdom, as Planet currently has access to a much-coveted Tier 1 UK Gaming License through its fully owned subsidiary of First XI.

The ban on single-event wagering is estimated by the Canadian Gaming Association to cost the Canadian gaming industry $14 billion annually. According to theScore.com*, the market potential for online gaming in Canada of between US$3.8 billion and US$5.4 billion in annual gross gaming revenue, based on historical data extrapolated from legal online gaming markets in the U.S. and globally.
