The requirement of the Software Bills of Materials (SBOM) is leading to fundamental changes in software suppliers. In the medical sector transparency and accountability are matters of life and death. Join us as we discuss how this movement towards software transparency and accountability impacts the reliability and efficacy of medical systems.

As leaders in SBOMs, these panelists will discuss how those in the medical sector can better create and utilize SBOMs. The event will be hosted live on the Cybeats YouTube<sup>5</sup> channel on January 11th at 1pm EST. Panelists will discuss the increasing demand for SBOMs and the greater importance of the longevity and credibility of software, ultimately showcasing how it offers a vital solution.
