Developments

In March 2015, it became apparent to management that the company would not be able to develop the Key Fob technology under the established design parameters and prototypes (the agreement entered between the Company and NeuronixWorks Inc. was effective as of January 27, 2014).

FastCorp Management Ltd. ("FCM") previously provided accounting services to the Company and FastCorp Computers Ltd. ("FCC") previously provided electronic filing services for the Company. Effective March 15, 2016, both FCM and FCC were adjudged bankrupt.

Disclosure controls and procedures

Based on continual evaluations of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures, the Company's chief executive officer and chief financial officer have concluded that, as of June 30, 2016, the design and operation of these disclosure controls and procedures are effective at the reasonable assurance level to ensure that material information relating to the Company would be known to them by others within those entities, particularly during the period in which the MD&A and the condensed interim financial statements contained in this report were being prepared.

Internal controls over financial reporting

The Company's chief executive officer and chief financial officer have designed, or have caused to be designed under their supervision, internal controls over financial reporting to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements in accordance with IFRS. The chief executive officer and chief financial officer concluded that there has been no change in the Company's internal control over financial reporting during the six-month period ending June 30, 2016, that has materially affected, or is reasonably likely to materially affect, the Company's internal controls over financial reporting.

Off-Balance Sheet Arrangements

The Company has no off-balance sheet arrangements.
