

Gulfside Appoints New Director

TSX.V - GMG

VANCOUVER, Jan. 19, 2012 /CNW/ - Robert L. Card, President of Gulfside Minerals Ltd. ("Gulfside" or the "Company"), is pleased to report that the Company has appointed Andrew K. Jarvis, as a Director, to fill a vacancy as Mr. John Jenks, BSc. PGeo., has resigned as a Director.

Mr. Jarvis brings added strength to the Company with his 15 years of business experience including board, executive and senior-level roles, in both public and private corporations. His experience also includes 5 years in the mineral exploration industry, as well as public finance and corporate management experience. He holds a Bachelor of Business Administration degree from Simon Fraser University, British Columbia, Canada. He has successfully completed the Canadian Securities Course and an exploration and mining overview course at the British Columbia Institute of Technology. Mr. Jarvis is a member of the Association for Mineral Exploration British Columbia.

The Company thanks Mr. Jenks for his more than seven years of service on the Board.

On Behalf of the Board of Directors,

Gulfside Minerals Ltd.

"Robert L. Card"
