

Abba Medix Grow Facility Improvements and MFT Advances

TORONTO, Nov. 21, 2017 -- Canada House Wellness Group Inc. (CSE:CHV) (“Canada House” or the “Company”) is pleased to announce that its wholly-owned subsidiary, Abba Medix (“Abba”), has been making substantial progress in its grow facility improvements.

Since obtaining a license to cultivate from Health Canada on Sept 1st, 2017 Abba has:

- Made substantial upgrades to their security system
- Licensed proven commercial production SOP’s that deliver industry leading quality and yields
- Begun upgrades to floor plan, mechanical and HVAC systems to support proven commercial production methods
- Sourced a large variety of high quality starting materials/genetics
- Licensed Ample Organics seed-to-sale software and equipment
- Begun expansion design work to include a larger vault, staging area and an extraction lab to support the Nutritional High/Abba Medix JV

Abba continues to work diligently towards obtaining a License to Sell from Health Canada which it hopes to obtain by May, 2018 and being in full production by August, 2018.

Marijuana for Trauma “MFT” has also been making significant progress. Since absorbing the last of the VAC cutbacks to cannabis coverage for Veterans in May, 2017 MFT has:

- Restructured the entire organization and culture.
- Defined an industry leading client experience.
- Closed 3 locations and opened 1, for a current total of 11 clinics.
- Added 10 Licensed Producers to our Preferred Providers list for a total of 21.
- Invested in the development and implementation of Knalysis Cannabis Patient Management Software.
- Hired and trained LPN’s and RN’s as Cannabinoid Therapy Educators for all locations.
- Defined our position in the market place as a brick and mortar ‘Specialty’ Cannabinoid Therapy clinic.
- Begun to build a substantial base of referring Physicians and medical community support.
- Increased prescriptions across the organization by an average of 800 per month, which includes 300-500 new active patients per month currently.
- Launched a ‘Veterans helping Veterans’ pilot program at the Edmonton clinic offering peer support and veteran resources, with the intent of taking the program across the country.
- Begun providing access to Second Level Assessment for our veteran clients who require more than 3 grams/day

MFT has begun to see positive revenue growth and consistent patient growth. We look to grow our clinics across the country with hopes of eventually supporting tens of thousands of Canadians with medical cannabis education and support.
