

Knalysis Technologies is a KIRA Award Finalist!

NOT FOR DISTRIBUTION TO U.S. NEWSWIRE SERVICES OR DISSEMINATION IN THE UNITED STATES

TORONTO, April 26, 2018 -- Knalysis Technologies ("Knalysis"), a subsidiary of Canada House Wellness Group Inc. (CSE:CHV) ("Canada House" or the "Company") is thrilled to announce that we are one of three finalists for the KIRA Award for the Most Innovative Start-Up. The KIRAs celebrate excellence in technological, social and economic innovation across all sectors and industries in New Brunswick.

"This nomination is truly an honour," says Paul Methot, President of Knalysis Technologies, "Being recognized as an innovator in this emerging medical cannabis market really validates the importance of bringing new technologies to bear to gather critical data with the purpose of improving patient outcomes."

The winners will be announced at the KIRA Awards on May 3rd as part of New Brunswick's Innovation Week.

About Knalysis Technologies:

Knalysis Technologies is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Canada House Wellness Group, a publicly traded Canadian company with one of the largest networks of cannabis clinics in Canada. We envisioned a need for health technology connecting every aspect of the medical marijuana field, and pioneered software to seamlessly link physician, provider, and patient. Purpose-built in our own clinics, Knalysis' suite of software has been battle-tested with thousands of patients for over four years; treating a broad range of ailments and symptoms.
