

Abba Medix Plants its Seeds

NOT FOR DISTRIBUTION TO U.S. NEWSWIRE SERVICES OR DISSEMINATION IN THE UNITED STATES

PICKERING, Ontario, May 08, 2018 -- Canada House Wellness Group Inc. (CSE:CHV) ("Canada House" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that its Abba Medix Corp. ("Abba") subsidiary has planted its first crop of high grade medicinal cannabis seeds at the Company's Health Canada Licensed (LP) Pickering grow facility. Eight strains were chosen for this first planting to meet the medicinal needs of its sister firm Marijuana for Trauma ("MFT") and their thousands of clients across Canada.

"We're very excited to finally begin our first growing cycle," said Abba President Riley McGee. "We are focused on growing the finest medicinal cannabis strains available for MFT's patient network. This is a major step in continuing to build our unique-in-the-industry integrated cannabis company."

At full production, Abba's Pickering facility is projected to produce more than 2,100 kg of premium cannabis bud annually. Abba is expected to reach full production and obtain a license to sell by the end of this year.
