

Canada House Wellness Group Rebrands Patient Division as Canada House Clinics

NOT FOR DISTRIBUTION TO U.S. NEWSWIRE SERVICES OR DISSEMINATION IN THE UNITED STATES

TORONTO, Sept. 24, 2018 -- Canada House Wellness Group Inc. (CSE: CHV) ("Canada House") is pleased to announce that after five years of servicing Veterans and the public as Marijuana for Trauma, our medical cannabis specialty clinics will be rebranded as Canada House Clinics™ effective October 1st, 2018.

"This is part of our strategic plan to focus Canada House on the medical cannabis market with an integrated approach across our three divisions" says Chris Churchill-Smith, CEO of Canada House. "As a leading medicinal cannabis company that believes in helping renew lives through cannabinoid therapies, we are pleased to introduce our new look and branding for our clinics."

Canada House Clinics operate across Canada and provide patients with education, support and access to medicinally prescribed cannabis. The experienced and highly trained clinical staff provide ongoing support and monitoring of patients' progress and results using advanced proprietary data analytics and tracking software. Canada House Clinics currently has over 5,000 active patients, including over 2,000 Veterans and maintains a database of over 12,000 registrations.

"We are passionate about the opportunity to help all Canadians dealing with relevant common and complex medical conditions" says Alex Kroon, President of Canada House Clinics. "Our new brand honors our veterans who know that the Canada House at the Kandahar Airfield in Afghanistan was an important refuge. While we are proud of our success in helping people with PTSD, we already service Canadians from all walks of life, and we wanted a brand that demonstrates our commitment to quality healthcare to all Canadians".
