

Trulieve Celebrates Record 45th Florida Dispensary with New Atlantic Coast Location

The new dispensary broadens access to Florida's widest-ranging medical cannabis inventory for patients in the Stuart market

STUART, FL, Feb. 14, 2020 /CNW/ - Trulieve Cannabis Corp. (CSE: TRUL & OTCQX: TCNMF) ("Trulieve" or "the Company"), a leading and top-performing cannabis company based in the United States, announced it will be opening the doors of a new Florida dispensary on Saturday, February 15th. The Stuart location makes a record 45 locations in the state of Florida and 47 nationwide for Trulieve.

The Stuart dispensary, located on Northwest Federal Highway, supports the company's mission to expand and ensure safe, reliable patient access statewide. It joins the Company's 44 other dispensaries statewide, bringing expanded access to patients on Florida's Atlantic Coast.

"Over the past year, we've really focused on creating elevated, educated, and excellent customer-centric experiences. Part of Trulieve's core mission is to ensure that patients across the state of Florida are able to access the medications that they've come to rely on and that includes opening in places where patients are located," said Trulieve CEO Kim Rivers. "We are looking forward to introducing direct access to patients in the Atlantic Coast market. Whether a patient is taking their first steps into medical cannabis or they are a dedicated Truliever, our well-trained staff in Stuart is ready and willing to assist patients during every step of the process."

Rivers added, "Regardless of where a patient is on their medical cannabis journey, we encourage everyone to reach out to learn more about our safe, natural products."

To commemorate the milestone location, Trulieve will be hosting a grand opening celebration at the Stuart dispensary on Saturday, February 15th, featuring press tours of the dispensary. All patients, from those new to Trulieve to our strong Truliever community, will also be eligible for a 25% in-store discount on the day of the opening.
