

Trulieve Receives Provisional Adult-use Cannabis License Approval in Massachusetts

Florida's largest cannabis company receives unanimous approval for three adult-use licenses in addition to their three medical licenses

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., June 4, 2020 /CNW/ - Trulieve Cannabis Corp. (CSE: TRUL) (OTCQX: TCNNF), a leading and top-performing cannabis company in the United States, announced today that Life Essence, Inc., doing business as Trulieve, received unanimous approval for its Adult-Use/Recreational Provisional License from the Massachusetts Cannabis Control Commission (CCC) to operate as a Tier 9 indoor cultivation and to carry out product manufacturing in Holyoke, Massachusetts. The CCC also awarded Trulieve its Adult-Use/Recreational Provisional License to operate a retail cannabis establishment in Northampton, Massachusetts.

"With Massachusetts starting its phased re-opening, and construction back underway at our cultivation and processing facility in Holyoke and dispensary in Northampton, we are thrilled to have been on the docket for today's Cannabis Control Commission public meeting and to receive a unanimous vote of approval for the provisional adult-use license applications," stated Trulieve Chief Executive Officer Kim Rivers. "We are looking forward to being operational in Massachusetts and bringing the Trulieve brand to the state. This is an important step forward in our plans for Massachusetts and we appreciate the CCC, and the support from its staff, in keeping this process moving forward during COVID."

Trulieve intends to co-locate the adult-use cannabis licenses at their facilities in Holyoke and Northampton, where they currently have their vertically integrated provisional medical licenses for cultivation, product manufacturing, and retail operations in place.
