

Idaho Champion Sells Legacy Property

Toronto, ON – April 27, 2020 - Idaho Champion Gold Mines Canada Inc. (CSE: ITKO) (“Champion” or the “Company”), a discovery-focused gold exploration company, is pleased to announce that it has entered into an agreement with South Shore Partnership Inc., effective April 24, 2020 for the sale of all of its Ontario patented and unpatented mining claims (the “Nudulama Claims” or the “Property”) located in the Leeson and Bracken Townships in the District of Sudbury Ontario, Canada.

The Nudulama Claims are a legacy property previously held by GoldTrain Resources which became Champion through Reverse Take Over (“RTO”) (See press release dated July 20, 2018), and the Property consists of thirteen (13) unpatented mining claims and twelve (12) patented claims. Under the terms of the agreement, the Company will receive cash proceeds of CAD$80,000.

“Champion’s key priority since inception has been advancing its gold assets in Idaho. The most recent Fraser Institute ranked Idaho as the 8th best mining jurisdiction in the world.” President and CEO Jonathan Buick stated. “We look forward to seeing the SouthShore Partnership find success with the Nudulama Claims. Champion will utilize the proceeds of this sale on this year’s exploration programs for our new discovery at the Baner project and at our past-producing Champagne gold project.”
