

Star Navigation Announces Reorganization

TORONTO, July 25, 2013 - Star Navigation Systems Group Ltd. (TSX-V: SNA) ("Star" or the "Company"), announces a reorganization of its management function.

While Research and Development will continue to be an important part of Star's business, as the Company transitions from being primarily a research and development company into the full commercialization of its STAR-ISMS® In-Flight Safety Monitoring System, the Company's main focus has shifted to sales, marketing and customer support.

As a result of the reorganization, the duties and responsibilities of the Chief Operating Officer ("COO") have been reallocated internally. Mr. John Thorburn, P. Eng., formerly COO, is no longer with the Company.

About Star Navigation:

Star Navigation Systems Group Ltd. (www.star-navigation.com) owns the exclusive worldwide license to its proprietary, patented In-flight Safety Monitoring System, the first system in the world to feature in-flight data-analysis, monitoring and diagnostics with a real-time connection between aircraft and ground. Its real-time capability of tracking performance-trends and predicting incident-occurrence enhances aviation safety and improves fleet management while reducing costs for the operator.

Certain statements contained in this News Release constitute forward-looking statements.
