Schedule "A"

Star Navigation secures protection in Indian market

TSX Venture Exchange Symbol: SNA

TORONTO, Oct. 23 /CNW/ - Star Navigation Systems Group Ltd. (TSX: SNA-V) ("Star Navigation") today announced that the Government of India has granted a key patent, strengthening the Company's position in one of the world's largest aviation markets, and further protecting the Company's proprietary technology. Mr. Viraf Kapadia, Chief Executive Officer of Star Navigation said, "This is our sixth patent award, and is a major milestone for the Company. Star's technology has been awarded patents in the United States, Canada, the United Kingdom, Hong Kong, Australia, and India. This latest patent solidifies our position in the world's largest growing aviation marketplaces. Star Navigation is a pioneer in the industry, and we will continue to protect our intellectual property aggressively against any infringement of our technology, as evidenced by our recent actions in the United States."

"The Indian patent is a significant achievement. According to industry estimates, the Indian aviation market is growing at a record pace of 20% per year. The Indian aviation industry is also expected to spend more than $86 billion over the next two decades. This patent grant ensures that Star Navigation will be in a position to play a significant role in that growth," said Mr. Dale F. Sparks, Chief Technology Officer of Star Navigation.
