Star Navigation Announces Resignation of Director

TORONTO, Ontario, November 18, 2016, Star Navigation Systems Group Ltd. (TSX-V: SNA) (OTCBB: SNAVF) ("Star" or the "Company") regrettably announces the resignation of Mr. Pierre Jeannot, O.C., C.Q., FRAeS, as a director of the Company, effective November 16, 2016. Mr. Jeannot has advised the Company that, for health reasons, it would be unwise for him to continue in his role as a director. He has indicated that a return to the Board is possible, depending upon his situation.

Mr. Jeannot, Director Emeritus of IATA, joined the Board in May, 2012, after serving as the Chairman of the Company's Strategic Advisory Board for several years. He was subsequently appointed Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Board. He brought to Star his extensive experience in a variety of differing sectors related to aviation.

The Company thanks Mr. Jeannot for his guidance over the years, and wishes him a speedy return to good health.

About Star Navigation:

Star Navigation Systems Group Ltd. owns the exclusive worldwide license to its proprietary, patented In-flight Safety Monitoring System, STAR-ISMS®, the heart of the STAR-A.D.S. ® System. It is the first system in the world to feature in-flight data-analysis, monitoring and diagnostics with a real-time connection between aircraft and ground. Its real-time capability of tracking performance trends and predicting incident-occurrence enhances aviation safety and improves fleet management while reducing costs for the operator.

Star's MMI Division designs and manufactures high performance mission critical flight deck, flat panel displays for defence and commercial aviation industries worldwide.
