CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

FOR THE YEAR ENDED FEBRUARY 29, 2016

(EXPRESSED IN CANADIAN DOLLARS)

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

To the Shareholders of PUDO Inc.

We have audited the accompanying consolidated financial statements of PUDO Inc. and its subsidiaries, which comprise the consolidated statements of financial position as at February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015, and the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss, consolidated statements of changes in shareholders' equity (deficiency) and consolidated statements of cash flows for the years then ended, and a summary of significant accounting policies and other explanatory information.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of these consolidated financial statements in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of consolidated financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

Auditor's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these consolidated financial statements based on our audits. We conducted our audits in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we comply with ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements are free from material misstatement.

An audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the amounts and disclosures in the consolidated financial statements. The procedures selected depend on the auditor's judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error. In making those risk assessments, the auditor considers internal control relevant to the entity's preparation and fair presentation of the consolidated financial statements in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the entity's internal control. An audit also includes evaluating the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluating the overall presentation of the consolidated financial statements.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Opinion

In our opinion, the consolidated financial statements present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of PUDO Inc. and its subsidiaries as at February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015, and their financial performance and cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with International Financial Reporting Standards.

Emphasis of Matter

Without qualifying our opinion, we draw attention to Note 1 in the consolidated financial statements which indicates that PUDO Inc. had continuing losses during the year ended February 29, 2016 and used cash of $1,159,979 in operating activities for the year ended February 29, 2016. These conditions along with other matters set forth in Note 1 indicate the existence of a material uncertainty that may cast significant doubt about PUDO Inc.'s ability to continue as a going concern.

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

For the Years Ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

1. Nature of operations and going concern

My Courier Depot Inc. ("MCD") was incorporated under the Ontario Business Corporations Act on December 16, 2013 and domiciled in Canada. Its registered office is situated at 400 Brunel Road, Mississauga, Ontario, Canada, L4Z 2C2.

MCD's principal activity is providing E-commerce shipment services through collaboration with specific online retailers for delivery of their products, and working with national and international courier companies to provide alternate drop-off and pickup options of packages.

PUDO Inc. (formerly "Grandview Gold Inc. ("PUDO" or the "Company")") was a gold exploration company focused on exploring and developing gold properties in North and South America. The Company was incorporated under the laws of the Province of Ontario. To date, the Company has not earned significant revenues from gold exploration and was considered to be in the exploration and evaluation stage.

On March 18, 2015, the Company entered into a share exchange agreement (the "Share Exchange Agreement") to acquire all of the issued and outstanding securities of MCD. Pursuant to the Share Exchange Agreement, the Company's management was replaced with management appointed by MCD and the Company now carries on the business of MCD.

On July 13, 2015, the Company completed (i) the consolidation of the issued and outstanding common shares of the Company on the basis of one (1) post-consolidation common share for each twenty (20) pre-consolidation common shares and (ii) the change of the Company's name to "PUDO Inc."

On July 14, 2015, the Company acquired all of the issued and outstanding shares of MCD ("MCD shares") on the basis of 8,333.33 post-consolidation shares for 1 MCD share. Effective July 14, 2015, the Company issued an aggregate of 10,316,797 shares of the Company to former shareholders of MCD (the "Acquisition"). The Acquisition was accounted for as a reverse takeover ("RTO") whereby MCD was identified as the acquirer for accounting purposes and the comparative figures presented in the consolidated financial statements are those of MCD (see note 11).

The Company has completed voluntary delisting of the Company's common shares from the NEX and received approval for the listing of all of its issued and outstanding securities on the Canadian Securities Exchange effective July 28, 2015.

On February 28, 2016, PUDO Inc. completed an amalgamation with its wholly owned subsidiary, MCD (see note 12).

These consolidated financial statements have been prepared with the assumption that the Company will continue in operation for the foreseeable future and will be able to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of operations. As at February 29, 2016, the Company had a working capital of $786,969 (February 28, 2015 - working capital deficiency of $355,693), had not yet achieved profitable operations, had used cash of $1,159,979 (February 28, 2015 - $178,172) in operating activities during the year ended February 29, 2016, and had accumulated losses of $2,928,682 as at February 29, 2016 (February 28, 2015 - $351,261). These conditions reflect material uncertainties that may cast significant doubt about the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. The continuing operations of the Company are dependent upon its ability to continue to raise adequate financing and to commence profitable operations in the future. While the Company has been successful in raising the necessary funding to continue operations in the past, there is no assurance that it will be able to do so in the future. These consolidated financial statements do not include the adjustments that would be necessary should the Company be unable to continue as a going concern. Such adjustments could be material.

2. Basis of preparation

(a) Statement of compliance

The Company applies International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS") as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB") and interpretations issued by the IFRS Interpretations Committee ("IFRIC").

The policies applied in these consolidated financial statements are based on IFRSs issued and outstanding as of June 3, 2016, the date the Board of Directors approved the financial statements.

(b) Basis of presentation

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis, except for the restricted short-term investment, comprised of a guaranteed investment certificate, which is stated at its fair value. In addition, these consolidated financial statements have been prepared using the accrual basis of accounting except for cash flow information.

(c) Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements comprise the financial statements of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries My Courier Depot Inc., Grandview Gold (USA) Inc., and Recuperacion Realzada, S.A.C.

Subsidiaries

Subsidiaries consist of entities over which the Company is exposed to, or has rights to, variable returns as well as the ability to affect those returns through the power to direct the relevant activities of the entity. Subsidiaries are fully consolidated from the date control is transferred to the Company and are de-consolidated from the date control ceases. The financial statements include all the assets, liabilities, revenues, expenses and cash flows of the Company and its subsidiaries after eliminating inter-entity balances and transactions.

3. Significant accounting policies

(a) New standards not yet adopted and interpretations issued but not yet effective

Certain pronouncements were issued by the IASB or the IFRIC that are mandatory for accounting years beginning on or after March 1, 2016 or later years. Many are not applicable or do not have a significant impact to the Company and have been excluded. The following have not yet been adopted and are being evaluated to determine their impact on the Company.

IFRS 9 – Financial Instruments ("IFRS 9") was issued by the IASB in November 2009 with additions in October 2010 and May 2013 and will replace IAS 39 Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement ("IAS 39"). IFRS 9 uses a single approach to determine whether a financial asset is measured at amortized cost or fair value, replacing the multiple rules in IAS 39. The approach in IFRS 9 is based on how an entity manages its financial instruments in the context of its business model and the contractual cash flow characteristics of the financial assets. Most of the requirements in IAS 39 for classification and measurement of financial liabilities were carried forward unchanged to IFRS 9, except that an entity choosing to measure a financial liability at fair value will present the portion of any change in its fair value due to changes in the entity's own credit risk in other comprehensive income, rather than within profit or loss. The new standard also requires a single impairment method to be used, replacing the multiple impairment methods in IAS 39. IFRS 9 is effective for annual years beginning on or after January 1, 2018. Earlier adoption is permitted.

(a) New standards not yet adopted and interpretations issued but not yet effective (continued)

IFRS 15 - Revenue From Contracts With Customers ("IFRS 15") proposes to replace IAS 18 - Revenue, IAS 11 - Construction Contracts, and some revenue-related interpretations. The standard contains a single model that applies to contracts with customers and two approaches to recognizing revenue: at a point in time or over time. The model features a contract-based five-step analysis of transactions to determine whether, how much and when revenue is recognized. New estimates and judgmental thresholds have been introduced, which may affect the amount and/or timing of revenue recognized. IFRS 15 is effective for annual years beginning on or after January 1, 2017. Earlier adoption is permitted.

IAS 38 Intangible Assets ("IAS 38") and IAS 16, Property, Plant and Equipment ("IAS 16") were amended in May 2014 to introduce a rebuttable presumption that the use of revenue-based amortization methods for intangible assets is inappropriate. The amendment is effective for annual years beginning on or after January 1, 2016.

(b) Changes in accounting standards

The Company has adopted the following amendment effective March 1, 2015.

IAS 24 Related Party Disclosures ("IAS 24") was amended to clarify that an entity providing key management services to the reporting entity or the parent of the reporting entity is a related party of the reporting entity. The amendments also require an entity to disclose amounts incurred for key management personnel services provided by a separate management entity.

There was no material impact on the adoption of this amendment on the consolidated financial statements.

(c) Foreign currencies

The functional currency of the Company and its subsidiaries is the Canadian dollar. Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transactions. Foreign exchange gains and losses resulting from the settlement of such transactions and from the translation at year-end exchange rates of monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currencies are recognized in profit or loss.

(d) Revenue recognition

The Company recognizes revenue when the delivery of customer packages is complete and collectability is reasonably assured. The Company is the principal to the delivery transaction and revenue from these transactions is recognized on a gross basis.

(e) Equipment

Equipment, which consists primarily of computer tablets and scanners, is initially recorded at cost. Computer equipment is amortized using the straight-line method over its estimated useful life of 3 years and scanners are amortized using the declining balance method at an annual rate of 20%.

(f) Intangible assets

Intangible assets, which consist of computer software, are initially recorded at cost. Computer software is amortized using the straight-line method over its estimated useful life of 5 years.

3. Significant accounting policies (continued)

(g) Impairment of non-financial assets

At each statement of financial position reporting date the carrying amounts of the Company's assets are reviewed to determine whether there is an indication that those assets are impaired. If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is estimated in order to determine the extent of the impairment, if any. The recoverable amount is the higher of fair value less costs to sell and value in use. In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. If the recoverable amount of an asset is estimated to be less than its carrying amount, the carrying amount of the asset is reduced to its recoverable amount and the impairment loss is recognized in profit or loss in the statements of loss and comprehensive loss for the year. For an asset that does not generate largely independent cash inflows, the recoverable amount is determined for the cash generating unit to which the asset belongs.

At the end of each reporting date, the Company assesses whether there is any indication that previously recognized impairment losses no longer exist. If such an indication exists, the carrying amount of the asset (or cash generating unit) is increased to the revised estimate of its recoverable amount, but so that the increased carrying amount does not exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset (or cash generating unit) in prior years. A reversal of an impairment loss is recognized immediately in profit or loss in the statement of loss and comprehensive loss.

(h) Financial instruments

The Company's accounting policies in respect of its financial instruments are set out below:

Financial assets

Financial assets are initially recorded at fair value and designated upon inception into one of the following categories: held to maturity, available for sale, loans and receivables or at fair value through profit or loss ("FVTPL"). Loans and receivables are recognized on the date of origination. All other financial assets are recognized on the trade date at which the Company becomes party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

Cash and amounts receivable are classified as loans and receivables and are initially recognized at fair value plus any directly attributable transaction costs. Subsequent to initial recognition, loans and receivables are measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method, less provision for impairment. A provision for impairment of trade receivables is established when there is objective evidence that the Company will not be able to collect all amounts due according to the original terms of receivables. The amount of provision is recorded in profit or loss.

The restricted short-term investment is classified at FVTPL. Subsequent to initial recognition, financial assets classified as FVTPL are measured at fair value with changes recognized in the statement of loss.

Financial assets are derecognized when the rights to receive cash flows from the investments have expired or have been transferred and the Company has transferred substantially all risks and rewards of ownership to another entity.

Identification and measurement of impairment of financial assets

At each reporting date, the Company assesses whether there is objective evidence that financial assets not carried at fair value through profit or loss are impaired. A financial asset or a group of financial assets is impaired when objective evidence demonstrates that a loss event has occurred after the initial recognition of the assets(s), and that the loss event has an impact on the future cash flows of the asset(s) that can be estimated reliably.

PUDO Inc.

(formerly "Grandview Gold Inc.")

Notes to Consolidated Financial Statements

For the Years Ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015

(Expressed in Canadian Dollars)

(h) Financial instruments (continued)

Impairment losses on assets carried at amortized cost are measured as the difference between the carrying amount of the financial asset and the present value of estimated future cash flows discounted at the asset's original effective interest rate. Impairment losses are recognized in profit or loss and reflected in an allowance account against loans and receivables. Interest on impaired assets continues to be recognized through the unwinding of the discount. When a subsequent event causes the amount of impairment loss to decrease, the decrease in impairment loss is reversed through profit or loss.

Financial liabilities

Financial liabilities are initially recorded at fair value and designated upon inception as fair value through profit or loss or other financial liabilities. Other payables and borrowings are recognized on the trade date at which the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument. Other payables and borrowings are classified as other financial liabilities and are initially recognized at fair value. After initial recognition, other financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest rate method. Financial liabilities are derecognized when the contractual obligations are discharged, cancelled or expire.

Fair value measurement

Financial instruments recorded at fair value on the statement of financial position are classified using a fair value hierarchy that reflects the significance of the inputs used in making the measurements. The fair value hierarchy has the following levels: Level 1 - valuation based on quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities; Level 2 - valuation techniques based on inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices); and Level 3 - valuation techniques using inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

As of February 29, 2016, the Company's restricted short-term investment was measured using Level 2 of the fair value hierarchy.

Offsetting

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount presented in the financial statements when and only when, the Company has a legal right to set off the recognized amounts and it intends either to settle on a net basis or realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

(i) Share-based compensation

Equity-settled share-based payments to employees and others providing similar services are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments at the grant date. Details regarding the determination of the fair value of equity-settled share-based transactions are set out in the share-based payment note.

Fair value is measured at grant date and each tranche is recognized on a graded-vesting basis over the period in which options vest. At the end of each reporting period, the Company revises its estimate of the number of equity instruments expected to vest. The impact of the revision of the original estimates, if any, is recognized in profit or loss such that the cumulative expense reflects the revised estimate, with a corresponding adjustment to stock options reserve.

Equity-settled share-based payment transactions with parties other than employees are measured at the fair value of the goods or services received, except where that fair value cannot be estimated reliably, in which case they are measured at the fair value of the equity instruments granted, measured at the date the entity obtains the goods or the counterparty renders the service.

On exercise, the value originally recorded in options and warrants reserves is recorded to share capital with proceeds received. For those options and warrants that expire after vesting, the recorded value is transferred from stock options and warrants reserves to deficit.

(j) Share capital

Common shares are classified as equity. Transaction costs directly attributable to the issue of common shares are recognized as a deduction from equity, net of any tax effects.

(k) Income taxes

Income tax expense comprises current and deferred tax. Current taxes and deferred taxes are recognized in profit and loss except to the extent that it relates to items recognized directly in equity or in other comprehensive income

Current tax is the expected tax payable or receivable on the taxable income or loss for the year, using tax rates enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date, and any adjustment to tax payable in respect of previous years.

Deferred tax is recognized in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes. Deferred tax is measured using enacted or substantively enacted tax rates expected to apply to taxable income in the years in which those temporary differences are expected to be recovered or settled.

A deferred tax asset is recognized for unused tax losses, tax credits and deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be utilized. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realized.

(l) Loss per share

Basic loss per share is calculated by dividing the loss attributable to common shareholders of the Company by the weighted average number of common shares outstanding during the year. Diluted loss per share is determined by adjusting the loss attributable to common shareholders and the weighted average number of common shares outstanding for the effects of dilutive instruments such as stock options and warrants. Stock options and warrants are dilutive when the Company has income from operations and the average market price of the common shares during the period exceeds the exercise price of the options and warrants. As the stock options and warrants would be anti-dilutive, they have been excluded from the diluted loss per share calculations for the years ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015.

(m) Short-term investments

Short-term investments are comprised of guaranteed investment certificates with original maturities of greater than three months and less than one year. As at February 29, 2016, the short-term investment was comprised of a guaranteed investment certificate to be held as collateral for a corporate credit card for as long as the credit card is active and has been reflected as a restricted asset. The restricted short-term investment amount would change if there is any change in the credit limit on the card.

4. Financial risk management

(a) Fair values

The carrying amounts of trade and other receivables, cash, trade and other payables, advances payable and borrowings approximate their fair values, given their short-term nature. As at February 29, 2016, the Company's short-term investment was classified as Level 2 within the fair value hierarchy.

(b) Financial risk factors

The Company's activities expose it to a variety of financial risks, including credit risk, liquidity risk, market risk, and capital risk management. This note discloses information about the Company's exposure to each of the above risks, their objectives, policies and processes for measuring and managing risk and their management of capital.

The Board of Directors has the overall responsibility for the establishment and oversight of the Company's risk management framework. The Company's risk management policies are established to identify and analyze the risks faced by the Company, to set appropriate risk limits and controls, and to monitor risks and adherence to limits. Risk management policies and systems are reviewed regularly to reflect changes in market conditions and the Company's activities.

(i) Credit risk

Credit risk is the risk that an issuer or counterparty will be unable or unwilling to meet commitments it has entered to with the Company. The financial assets that potentially expose the Company to credit risk consist principally of cash or other receivables. The extent of the Company's exposure to credit risk approximate their carrying values are recorded in the Company's consolidated statement of financial position.

The maximum exposure to credit risk is represented by the carrying amount of each financial asset in the statement of financial position. The maximum exposure to credit risk at the reporting date was:

	February 29, 2016	February 28, 2015
Trade and other receivables	$ 154,688	$ 15,328
Cash	891,301	319,625
Restricted short-term investment	25,000	-
	$ 1,070,989	$ 334,953

(ii) Liquidity risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet its financial obligations as they fall due. The Company's approach to managing liquidity is to ensure, as far as possible, that it will always have sufficient liquidity to finance its operations and to mitigate the effects of fluctuations in cash flows. See going concern discussion in note 1.

4. Financial risk management (continued)

b) Financial risk factors (continued)

(ii) Liquidity risk (continued)

The following are the contractual maturities of financial liabilities:

	February 29, 2016	February 28, 2015
	<1 year	< 1 year
Trade and other payable	$ 360,470	$ 109,322
Advances payable	15,025	-
Borrowings	-	586,324
	$ 375,495	$ 695,646

In order to meet such cash commitments, the Company will be required to generate sufficient cash inflows from operating and financing activities.

(iii) Market risk

Market risk is the risk that changes in market prices, such as foreign exchange rates and interest rates will affect the Company's income or the value of its holdings of financial instruments. The objective of market risk management is to manage and control market risk exposures within acceptable parameters, while optimizing the return.

The Company's exposure to risks of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to its cash and short-term investment balances. The Company constantly analyzes its interest rate exposure, giving consideration to potential renewals of existing positions, alternative financial positions and the mix of fixed and variable interest rates.

Currency risk

Since the Company has a bank account denominated in US dollars, it is exposed to foreign currency risk due to fluctuations in exchange rate. The Company purchases goods and services in Canadian dollars and US dollars. Since the Company reports its results in Canadian dollars, the functional currency of the Company, it is exposed to changes in the value of the US dollar relative to that of the Canadian dollar. The Company also entered into investment loan agreements which were denominated in US dollars which had exposed the Company to foreign currency risk due to fluctuations in exchange rate. As at February 29, 2016, the Company had cash of US$143,896 ($194,590) (February 28, 2015 – US$237,995 ($299,368)) and borrowings of $nil (February 28, 2015 - US$366,266 ($455,313)).

Interest rate risk

The Company's exposure to risks of changes in market interest rates relates primarily to its cash and short-term investment balances. The Company constantly analyzes its interest rate exposure, giving consideration to potential renewals of existing positions, alternative financial positions and the mix of fixed and variable interest rates.

4. Financial risk management (continued)

(iv) Capital risk management

The Company reviews and manages its capital position from time to time to maintain a balance between its liability and equity levels. The Company uses the capital contributed by investors to finance its working capital requirements.

The Board of Directors does not establish quantitative return on capital criteria for management but rather relies on the expertise of the Company's management to sustain future developments of the business. The Company defines capital as equity and borrowings.

The Company's capital management objectives, policies and processes have remained materially unchanged during the years ended February 29, 2016 and February 28, 2015.

(v) Sensitivity analysis

Based on management's knowledge and experience in the financial markets, the Company believes the following movements are reasonably possible over the year. Sensitivity to a plus or minus 1% change in the US–Canadian dollar foreign exchange rate, based on the current US dollar denominated balances as at February 29, 2016, would affect the net loss by approximately plus or minus $2,000 during a twelve-month year.

5. Critical accounting estimates and judgments

The Company makes estimates and judgments that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities within the next year. Estimates and judgments are continually evaluated and are based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations future events that are believed to be reasonable under the circumstances.

In the determination of carrying values and impairment charges, management looks at the higher of recoverable amount or fair value less costs to sell in the case of assets and at objective evidence, significant or prolonged decline of fair value on financial assets indicating impairment. These determinations and their individual assumptions require that management make a decision based on the best available information at each reporting year.

Computer software and equipment

The useful life of computer software and equipment is determined by management at the time the software and equipment is acquired and brought into use and is regularly reviewed for appropriateness. For unique software products controlled by the Company, the life is based on management's historical experience with similar products as well as anticipation of future events which may impact their life such as changes in technology.

In the determination of carrying values and impairment charges, management looks at the higher of recoverable amount or fair value less costs to sell in the case of assets and at objective evidence, significant or prolonged decline of fair value on financial assets indicating impairment. These determinations and their individual assumptions require that management make a decision based on the best available information at each reporting year.

5. Critical accounting estimates and judgments (continued)

Income, value added, withholding and other taxes

The Company is subject to income, value added, withholding and other taxes. Significant judgment is required in determining the Company's provisions for taxes. There are many transactions and calculations for which the ultimate tax determination is uncertain during the ordinary course of business. The Company recognizes liabilities for anticipated tax audit issues based on estimates of whether additional taxes will be due. The determination of the Company's income, value added, withholding and other tax liabilities requires interpretation of complex laws and regulations. The Company's interpretation of taxation law as applied to transactions and activities may not coincide with the interpretation of the tax authorities. All tax related filings are subject to government audit and potential reassessment subsequent to the financial statement reporting period. Where the final tax outcome of these matters is different from the amounts that were initially recorded, such differences will impact the tax related accruals and deferred income tax provisions in the period in which such determination is made.

Share-based payments

The Company measures the cost of equity-settled transactions with employees and directors by reference to the fair value of the equity instruments at the date at which they are granted. Estimating fair value for share-based payment transactions requires determining the most appropriate valuation model, which is dependent on the terms and conditions of the grant. Assumptions are made and judgment is used in applying valuation techniques. These assumptions and judgments include estimating the future volatility of the stock price, expected dividend yield, future employee turnover rates and future employee stock option exercise behaviors and corporate performance. Such judgments and assumptions are inherently uncertain. Changes in these assumptions affect the fair value estimates.

(i) On July 14, 2015, the Company acquired all of the issued and outstanding shares of MCD on the basis of 8,333.33 post-consolidation shares for 1 MCD common share. In addition, the Company also acquired all of the issued and outstanding Class A preferred shares of MCD on the basis of 8,333.33 post-consolidation shares for 1 MCD preferred share. Effective July 14, 2015, the Company issued an aggregate of 10,316,797 shares of the Company to former shareholders of MCD. The 400 MCD common shares and 612 MCD Class A preferred shares as at February 28, 2015 and the 226 MCD common shares issued on conversion of borrowings during the year ended February 29, 2016 had been restated on the basis of the ratio of 1: 8,333.33 to 3,333,332, 5,100,000 and 1,883,465 common shares of PUDO, respectively, to reflect the shares issued in the RTO. The Acquisition was accounted for as a RTO whereby MCD was identified as the acquirer for accounting purpose (see note 11).

(ii) On August 24, 2015, the Company closed a non-brokered private placement of 1,100,000 common shares at a price of $0.63 or US$0.50 per common share for total proceeds of $715,974. A total of 90,000 broker warrants were issued in connection with the private placement, exercisable for one common share at a price of $0.63. The broker warrants have an estimated fair value of $25,869, using the Black-Scholes valuation model with the following assumptions: risk-free interest rate of 0.33%, expected life of two years, expected volatility of 100%, based on the historical volatility of comparable companies, and expected dividend yield of 0%. Two directors of the Company subscribed for an aggregate of 100,000 common shares for gross proceeds of $63,000 pursuant to this private placement.

In accordance with IFRS 3, Business Combinations, the substance of the transaction is a reverse takeover of a non-operating company. The transaction does not constitute a business combination as PUDO does not meet the definition of a business under the standard. As a result, the transaction is accounted for as a capital transaction with MCD being identified as the acquirer and the equity consideration being measured at fair value. The resulting consolidated financial statements are presented as a continuance of MCD and comparative figures presented in the consolidated financial statements after the reverse takeover are those of MCD.

The fair value of the consideration is determined based on the percentage of ownership the legal parent's shareholders have in the consolidated entity after the transaction. This represents the fair value of the shares that MCD would have had to issue for the ratio of ownership interest in the combined entity to be the same, if the transaction had taken the legal form of MCD acquiring 100% of the shares in PUDO. The percentage of ownership PUDO shareholders had in the combined entity is 29% after the issue of 10,316,797 PUDO shares. The fair value of the consideration in the RTO is equivalent to the fair value of the 4,178,005 PUDO shares controlled by original PUDO shareholders. The fair value of the shares controlled by original PUDO shareholders was estimated to be $1,044,501 based on the estimated fair market value of $0.25 per share on the date of July 14, 2015.

The amount assigned to the transaction cost of $1,307,958 is the difference between the fair value of the consideration and the net identifiable net liabilities of PUDO acquired by MCD is included in the consolidated statements of loss and comprehensive loss.

12. Amalgamation

On February 28, 2016, PUDO completed a vertical short-form amalgamation pursuant to the Business Corporations Act (Ontario) with its wholly-owned subsidiary, MCD. No securities of PUDO were issued in connection with the amalgamation and the share capital of PUDO was unchanged. The amalgamation of PUDO and MCD has been undertaken in order to simplify the corporate structure of PUDO and to reduce administrative costs. The amalgamation will not have any significant effect on the business and operations of PUDO.

As at February 29, 2016, balances payable to the related parties noted above amounted to $89,671 (February 28, 2015 - $7,968) included in trade and other payables and $nil (February 28, 2015 - $131,011) included in borrowings.

See also notes 9 and 10.

(b) Major shareholders:

As at February 29, 2016, no person or corporation beneficially owns or exercises control or direction over common shares of the Company carrying more than 10% of the voting rights attached to all of the common shares of the Company other than Palm Holding Inc. which owns or controls, directly or indirectly, 10% of the issued and outstanding shares of the Company. These shareholdings can change at any time at the discretion of the owner.

None of the Company's major shareholders have different voting rights from other holders of the Company's common shares.

The Company is not currently aware of any arrangements, the operation of which may at a subsequent date result in a change in control of the Company.

20. Commitments and contingencies

The Company has entered into various agreements for services, which if terminated by the Company would require payments of up to $165,500. As the triggering events have not occurred, these amounts have not been accrued in the consolidated financial statements as at February 29, 2016.

21. Income taxes

a) Provision for income taxes

Major items causing the Company's effective income tax rate to differ from the combined Canadian federal and provincial statutory rate of 26.5% (2015 – 26.5%) were as follows:

	February 29, 2016	February 28, 2015
(Loss) before income taxes	$ (2,577,421)	$ (323,997)
Expected income tax recovery based on statutory rate	(683,000)	(86,000)
Adjustment to expected income tax benefit:
Share-based compensation	75,000	-
Expenses not deductible for tax purposes	350,000	-
Other	19,000	-
Deferred tax assets acquired on acquisition	(6,154,000)	-
Change in benefit of tax assets not recognized	6,393,000	86,000
Deferred income tax provision (recovery)	$ -	$ -

b) Temporary differences

	February 29, 2016 $	February 28, 2015 $

21. Income taxes (continued)

As at February 29, 2016, the Company had approximately $7,360,000 (2015 - $346,000) of non-capital losses in Canada. Included in this balance are non-capital losses of approximately $6,136,000 incurred by Grandview Gold Inc. prior to the reverse takeover transaction described in Note 11, which will not be available to offset taxable income in future periods. However, if it is determined that these pre-acquisition tax losses were incurred in carrying on a business that is the same or similar to that carried on by the Company subsequent to the reverse takeover transaction, the losses may be offset against future income derived from the same or similar business. The non capital losses expire as follows:

2026	$ 1,366,000
2027	1,685,000
2028	1,760,000
2031	566,000
2032	410,000
2034	171,000
2035	449,000
2036	953,000
	$ 7,360,000

22. Subsequent event

On March 3, 2016, the Company acquired certain assets and assumed certain liabilities from 640624 N.B. Ltd. (o/a Kinek) a New Brunswick-based corporation involved in the operation of an international network of alternative delivery locations that accept and store packages. Kinek locations ("KinekPoints") receive and store parcels for their customers' convenience until they are picked up. By shipping to one of the many border KinekPoints, Canadians can order from U.S. companies that may not ship to Canada, have access to free shipping, and larger product selection at lower prices.

In consideration for the business acquisition, the Company issued 116,745 common shares to Kinek with an estimated fair value of $3.15 per share, based on the quoted market share price on the date of issuance, for a total cost of $368,068. Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, Kinek has the right to nominate one director to the board of directors of the Company for the ensuing year.
