NameSilo LLC CEO Kristaps Ronka states: "We were very pleased to see that a community of individuals that is active in the buying and selling of domains has embraced NameSilo in this recent poll. We truly appreciate their support and will continue to endeavour to provide our growing community of NameSilo clients with best-in-class products and services in the months and years to come".

Acceleration of Warrant Expiry Date

Further, the Company announces that it has elected to accelerate the expiry date of the warrants (the "Warrants") issued on January 15, 2018 in connection with a non-brokered private placement unit offering (the "2018 Private Placement").

Pursuant to the terms of the Warrants, if the average closing price of the Company's shares on the Canadian Securities Exchange is equal to or greater than $0.45 per share for a period of twenty (20) consecutive trading days, the Company is entitled to accelerate the expiry date of the Warrants to a date that is thirty days after the notice of such acceleration is provided to holders of Warrants.

This news release constitutes notice to Warrant holders of the new expiry time. Any Warrants remaining unexercised after the new expiry time will be cancelled.

Effective today, the Warrants issued to the purchasers pursuant to the 2018 Private Placement are set to expire at 5:00 p.m. (Vancouver time) on July 7, 2019.

How to Exercise Warrants

Warrant holders who wish to exercise their Warrants should instruct their investment advisor and be prepared to provide payment to their advisor firm equal to the exercise price for each Warrant exercised. Investors should consult with their investment advisor to confirm the time required to complete this process and other costs associated with the exercise, if any.

Warrant holders who hold a physical certificate wishing to exercise Warrants need to provide the Company with a certified cheque, bank draft or money order payable to the Company, together with the Warrant certificate with the exercise appended to the certificate duly completed.
