1. GENERAL INFORMATION

RXT 110 Inc. (the "Company") is a public company incorporated and domiciled in Canada, whose shares are traded on the Canadian National Stock Exchange (CNSX) under the symbol "RXT". The Company's registered address is 1120 Finch Avenue West, Suite 503, Toronto, Ontario M3J 3H7, Canada.

In 2011, the Company acquired the intellectual property rights to certain technology and processes relating to anti-microbial products with potential commercial and consumer applications as described in Note 8. In the previous fiscal year, the Company entered into an exclusive retail distribution agreement with a major distributor of home renovation products (the "Distributor") for Canada and the United States for the Company's line of home improvement and construction related anti-microbial products.

In late 2011, the Company began construction of a dedicated research facility in Parry Sound, Ontario, Canada to further develop and expand both the consumer and commercial applications of the technology. Construction is scheduled to be completed in late 2012.

2. BASIS OF PREPARATION

(a) Statement of Compliance

These interim financial statements hve been prepared in accordance with International Accounting Standard 34, "Interim Financial Reporting" (IAS 34"), as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board ("IASB"), using the accounting policies the Company expects to adopt in its financial statements as at and for the financial year ending September 30, 2012.

As these interim financial statements are the Company's first financial statements prepared using International Financial Reporting Standards ("IFRS"), certain disclosures that are required to be included in the annual financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS that were not included in the Company's most recent annual financial statements prepared in accordance with Canadian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("Canadian GAAP") have been included in these financial statements for the current comparative and comparative periods.

These interim financial statements should be read in conjunction with the Company's 2011 annual financial statements, with consideration given to the IFRS transition disclosures included in Note 15 to these interim financial statements and the additional annual disclosures included herein.

These interim financial statements were authorized for issuance by the Board of Directors of the Company on March 30, 2012.

(b) Use of Estimates and Judgements

The preparation of these interim financial statements in conformity with IFRS requires management to make certain judgements, estimates and assumptions that affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements, and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the reporting period.

Judgement is commonly used in determining whether a balance or transaction should be recognized in the financial statements and estimates and assumptions are more commonly used in determining the measurement of recognized transactions and balances. However, judgement and estimates are often interrelated.

The Company has applied judgement in its assessment of the appropriateness of the classification of items such as financial instruments, in identifying the indicators of impairment for property and equipment and intangible assets with finite useful lives, and in assessing the likelihood that tax losses will be utilitzed in future.

Estimates are used when determining the useful lives of property and equipment and intangible assets for the purposes of depreciation and amortization, and when measuring items including those related to the valuation of indefinite useful life intangible assets and other assets for impairment. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognized in the period in which the estimates are revised and in any future periods affected.

3. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The accounting policies set out in these interim financial statements have been applied consistently to all periods presented in these financial statements.

(a) Basis of Measurement

These interim financial statements have been prepared on the historical cost basis and under the going concern convention.

The methods used to measure fair values are discussed further in Note 4 to these financial statements.

(b) Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized when goods are shipped to customers, the price is fixed or determinable, and collection is reasonably assured.

(c) Income Taxes

The Company follows the asset and liability method of accounting for income taxes. Under this method, deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognized for the future tax consequences attributable to differences between financial statement carrying amounts of assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases.

(d) Earnings (Loss) per Share

Basic earnings (loss) per share is calculated by dividing net earnings (loss) by the weighted average number of Class A shares outstanding during the period. Fully diluted earnings (loss) per share is calculated using the treasury stock method which assumes that outstanding stock options and warrants are exercised if their effect is dilutive.

(e) Financial Instruments

Classification of Financial Instruments

Financial instruments are classified into one of the following five categories: held for trading, held-to-maturity investments, loans and receivables, available-for-sale financial assets or financial liabilities. The classification determines the accounting treatment of the instrument. The classification is determined by the Company when the financial instrument is initially recorded, based on the underlying purpose of the instrument.

The Company's financial instruments are classified and measured as follows:

Financial Asset / Liability	Category	Measurement
Cash	Held for trading	Fair value
Amounts receivable	Loans and receivables	Amortized cost
Loan receivable	Loans and receivables	Amortized cost
Accounts payable	Financial liabilities	Amortized cost

Financial instruments measured at amortized cost are initially recognized at fair value and then subsequently at amortized cost using the effective interest method, less any impairment losses, with gains and losses recognized in earnings in the period in which the gain or loss occurs.

(f) Share Capital

Shares issued by the Company are recorded in the amount of the proceeds received, net of the after tax cost of issuance.

The Company, from time to time, may repurchase its shares. When shares are repurchased, the amount of the consideration paid, which includes directly attributable costs and is net of any tax effects, is recognized as a deduction from share capital. Any repurchased shares will be cancelled.

(g) Property and Equipment

Items of property and equipment are measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and any recognized impairment losses. Cost includes expenditures that are directly attributable to the aguisition of the asset.

When components of property and equipment have different useful lives, they are accounted for as separate items of property and equipment.

The Company commences recognition of depreciation when the item of property and equipment is ready for its intended use. Depreciation is recognized on the following bases:

Furniture and equipment 20% declining balance and 20 years straight line

Computer equipment 45% declining balance

Leasehold improvements lesser of lease term or useful life, straight line

Depreciation methods and useful lives are reviewed at each reporting date.

(h) Intangible Assets - License

Intangible assets that are acquired by the Company which have finite useful lives, are measured at cost less accumulated amortization and any accumulated impairment losses. Amortization is provided for to amortize the license over its estimated useful life as follows:

License straight-line over the license term

Amortization methods and useful lives are reviewed at each reporting date.

(i) Impairment

None of the Company's non-financial assets generate independent cash inflows and therefore all non-financial assets are allocated to cash generating units ("CGU") for purposes of assessing impairment. CGUs are defined as the smallest identifiable group of assets that generate cash inflows that are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or group of assets.

Impairment losses are recognized when carrying amount of a CGU exceeds the recoverable amount, which is greater of the CGU's fair values less cost to sell and its value in use. Value in use is the present value of the estimated future cash flows from the CGU discounted using a pre-tax rate that reflects current market rates and the risks inherent in the business of each CGU. If the recoverable amount of the CGU is less than its carrying amount, the CGU is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount. The impairment loss is allocated to reduce the carrying amount of the assets of the unit, allocated pro-rata on the basis of the carrying amount of each asset.

Impairment losses of continuing operations are recognized in the income statement. A previously recognized impairment loss for non-financial assets, excluding goodwill, is reversed if there has been a change in the assumptions used to determine recoverable amount since the previous impairment loss was recognized. The carrying amount after the reversal cannot exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognized for the asset in prior years.

(j) Stock-based Compensation

The Company has a stock-based compensation plan as described in Note 12. The Company accounts for all stock based payments granted using the fair value based method. Awards of stock based compensation that are subject to shareholder approval are accounted for from the date of approval if shareholder approval is assured. Under the fair value based method, employee compensation cost is measured at fair value at the grant date and recognized over the vesting period. For awards that vest at the end of the vesting period, compensation cost is recognized on a straight-line basis; for awards that vest on a graded basis, compensation cost for each tranche of options is recognized on a pro rata basis over the vesting period. For non-employees, compensation cost is measured at the earliest of: the date performance is complete; the date at which a commitment for performance is reached; or the date at which the instruments are granted if they are fully vested and non-forfeitable at that date. Consideration received on the exercise of stock options is recorded as share capital along with the related amounts of contributed surplus.

Other share based transactions are entered into in the normal course of business and are accounted for at fair value, determined as the negotiated price for goods or services supplied to the Company.

(k) Accounting Standards Issued Not Yet Effective

As of January 1, 2013, The Company will be required to adopt IFRS 9, "Financial Instruments", which is the result of the first phase of the IASB's project to replace IAS 39, "Financial Instruments: Recognition and Measurement". The new Standard replaces the current multiple classification and measurement models for financial assets and liabilities with a single model that has only two classification categories: amortized cost and fair value. The adoption of this standard should not have a material impact on the Company's financial statements.

In May 2011, the IASB issued the following standards which have not yet been adopted by the Company: IFRS 10, Consolidated Financial Statements (IFRS10), IFRS 11, Joint Arrangements (IFRS 11), IFRS 12, Disclosure of Interest in Other Entities (IFRS 12), IAS 27, Separate Financial Statements (IAS 27), IFRS 13, Fair Value Measurement (IFRS 13), and amended IAS 28, Investments in Associates and Joint Ventures (IAS 28). Each of the new standards is effective for annual periods beginning on or after January 1, 2013 with early adoption permitted. The Company has not yet begun the process of assessing the impact that the new and amended standards will have on its financial statements or whether to early adopt any of the new requirements.

4. DETERMINATION OF FAIR VALUES

A number of the Company's accounting policies and disclosures require the determination of fair value, for both financial assets and liabilities. Fair values have been determined based on the following. When applicable, further information about the assumptions made in determining the fair values is disclosed in the notes specific to that asset or liability.

(a) Financial Assets

The fair values of cash and amounts receivable approximate their carrying values due to their short-term maturities.

(b) Financial Liabilities

The fair values of accounts payable approximate their carrying values due to their short-term maturities.

(c) Share-based Payment Transactions

The grant date fair values of stock options granted to employees are measured using the Black-Scholes option-pricing model (the "model"). Measurement inputs to the model include share price on measurement date, exercise price of the instruments, expected volatility, weighted average expected life of the instruments, expected dividends and the risk-free interest rate (based on government bonds).

5. LOAN RECEIVABLE

The loan receivable was unsecured, non-interest bearing and has no specific terms of repayment. (See Note 10(b)(i) and Note 18(i)).

Other components of the deferred income tax asset that were recognized at September 30, 2011 include an excess of amortization over tax depreciation of $36,500 (2010 - $Nil) and the tax benefit of deductible financing costs incurred of $42,689 (2010 - $Nil). At December 31, 2011, it is more likely than not that the Company will be able to realize the benefit of the unused tax losses, therefore no valuation allowance has been provided.

The MM License Agreement provides for an interim license for a two year period during which time the Company has the opportunity to prove out the manufacturing process and obtain all legal and regulatory approvals. The consideration payable for the interim license was $150,000 of which $100,000 is included in accounts payable at September 30, 2011.

15. EXPLANATION OF TRANSITION TO IFRS

As stated in Note 2(a), these are the Company's first financial statements prepared in accordance with IFRS. Prior to the adoption of IFRS, the Company prepared its financial statements in accordance with Canadian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles ("Canadian GAAP" or previous GAAP"). The Company's financial statements for the financial year ending September 30, 2012 will be the first annual financial statements that comply with IFRS.

The accounting policies set out in Note 3 have been applied in preparing the financial statements for the 3 months ended, the comparative information presented in these financial statements for the financial year ended September 30, 2011, for the three months ended December 31, 2010 and in the preparation of an opening IFRS balance sheet at October 1, 2010 (the Company's date of transition). The Company will ulitimately prepare its opening IFRS balance sheet and financial statements for 2011 and 2012 by applying existing IFRS with an effective date of September 30, 2012, accordingly, the opening IFRS balance sheet and financial statements for 2011 and 2012 may differ from these financial statements.

IFRS 1 requires an entity to reconcile equity, comprehensive income (loss) and cash flows for prior periods. The Company's first-time adoption did not have an impact on the total equity, comprehensive loss and cash flows and there are therefore no reconciling adjustments from Canadian GAAP to IFRS in preparing its opening IFRS balance sheet as at October 1, 2010.

15. EXPLANATION OF TRANSITION TO IFRS (Continued)

IFRS 1 First-time Adoption of International Financial Reporting Standards sets forth guidance for the initial adoption of IFRS. Under IFRS 1 the standards are applied retrospectively at the transitional balance sheet date with all adjustments to assets and liabilities taken to retained earnings unless certain exemptions are applied. The Company has applied the following exemption to its opening statement of financial position dated October 1, 2010:

(i) Exemption for business combinations

IFRS1 provides the option to apply IFRS 3, Business Combinations, prospectively from the transition date or from a specific date prior to the transition date. This provides relief from full retrospective application that would require restatement of all business combinations prior to the transition date. The Company has elected to apply IFRS 3 prospectively to business combinations occurring after its transition date. Business combinations occurring prior to the transition date have not been restated.

(ii) Estimates

In accordance with IFRS 1, an entity's estimates under IFRS at the date of transition to IFRS must be consistent with estimates made for the same date under previous GAAP, unless there is objective evidence that those estimates were in error. The Company's IFRS estimates as of October 1, 2010 are consistent with its Canadian GAAP estimates for the same date.

16. CAPITAL MANAGEMENT

Capital is defined as share capital. The Company's objectives when managing capital are to maintain an appropriate balance between holding a sufficient amount of capital to support its operations as a going concern, and providing shareholders with a prudent amount of leverage, as and when required, to enhance returns. There have been no changes since the prior year.

The Company is not subject to any regulatory or contractual capital obligations of material consequence.

17. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

(a) Fair Value

The carrying amounts of the Company's financial instruments, consisting of cash, amounts receivable, and accounts payable, approximate their fair values due to their short-term nature. The fair value estimates for due from related parties cannot be determined with sufficient reliability as no active market exists for such related party instruments.

(b) Liquidity Risk

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Company will not be able to meet a demand for cash or fund its obligations as they come due. The Company considers that it has sufficient funds available to meet its current and long-term financial needs. To the extent that the Company does not believe it has sufficient liquidity to meet its obligations, management will consider securing additional funds through debt or equity transactions. The Company manages its liquidity risk by continuously monitoring forecast and actual cash flows. There have been no changes since the prior year.
