

NEWS RELEASE

Langley, BC, Canada, March 21, 2012, Curlew Lake Resources Inc. (the "Company") (TSX-V: CWQ) (Pink Sheets CWLXF) has appointed Dr. Harold Noyes and Robert Kramer to the board of directors. Robert Davies and Eric Ascroft have stepped down as directors, and the company wishes to thank them for their services. The company welcomes the expertise that will be provided to the board by each of Dr. Noyes and Mr. Kramer.

Dr. Noyes work has included exploration and evaluation of a broad range of mineral projects. He worked for several major companies early in his career, including Anaconda Copper (base and precious metals), Westinghouse Nuclear Fuels Division (uranium exploration and mining), Minatome (Total Petroleum uranium division), and Conoco Minerals (division of Conoco Petroleum). He managed mineral exploration and evaluation programs for 15 years with Doyon Limited, an Alaska Native corporation where he developed and marketed minerals and oil and gas exploration property packages. For approximately three years he was a Senior Program Manager for Pacific Northwest National Laboratory. He is currently is president of a privately held exploration company evaluating properties in Minnesota and Wyoming.

Dr. Noyes has a Ph. D. in Geology and Geochemistry from the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, an MBA from the University of Chicago, and a B.A. in Geology from the University of Minnesota Duluth. He is a member of a number of professional organizations, is a Certified Professional Geologist, and has served on a number of commissions providing resource related public policy service. He lives in Golden, Colorado, in the greater Denver metropolitan area.

An accounting professional with over 35 years of business experience, Mr. Kramer, CA, CPA, has served in senior executive, director and non-executive director positions with public natural resource and technology companies trading on exchanges in both Canada and the United States. Mr. Kramer presently serves as CFO and director of Canamex Resources Corp., a junior resource company trading on the TSX Venture Exchange, with gold exploration projects in Guyana, South America and in Nevada. Most recently, Mr. Kramer was chair of the audit committee of Silver Bull Resources Inc. (formerly Metalline Mining Company) trading on the NYSE Amex and the Toronto Stock Exchange and was co-lead director on structuring a merger with a Vancouver-based entrepreneurial and mineral exploration group. He holds a degree in economics from the University of California at Berkeley, and is a member of the Canadian Institute of Chartered Accountants, a registered Certified Public Accountant in the state of Illinois, and a fellow of the Institute of Chartered Secretaries and Administrators.

For clarification, the following now comprise the officers and directors of the company: Robert Pincombe, president and director, David McKee chief financial officer and director, Dr. Harry Noyes director and Robert Kramer director.

On behalf of the Board of Directors

"Robert B. Pincombe"

President
