Albert Mining changes its name to Windfall Geotek

Brossard, Quebec / The Newswire / October 17, 2019 – Albert Mining Inc. (the "Company" or "Albert Mining") (TSX-V: AIIM), a mining exploration company and a leader in the use of Artificial Intelligence (AI) and advanced knowledge-extraction techniques since 2005 in the mining sector, is pleased to announce it has changed its name to Windfall Geotek Inc. (AIIM-TSXV), effective at the opening on Thursday, October 17, 2019.

"Our CARDS software platform has applications beyond mining, and the board picked Windfall Geotek to reflect that opportunity. We have proven ourselves in the mining industry for the past 15 years, and are now exploring applications in defense, construction, and other sectors," explained Dinesh Kandanchatha, Chairman of Windfall Geotek, "It is our goal to make Windfall Geotek the premier AI based technology company for geotechnical work globally."

A resolution was passed to this effect by the shareholders of Albert Mining on October 10, 2019 at the Annual and Special Meeting. There is no consolidation of capital and the symbol will remain unchanged: TSX-V: AIIM. Windfall Geotek will continue to be classified as a Mineral Exploration/Development company.
