

APPOINTMENT OF GARY JOHNSON TO THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Montreal, Quebec, December 7, 2015 – St-Georges Platinum and Base Metals Ltd. (CSE: SX) (FSE: 85G1) (US OTC: SXOOF) is pleased to announce that Gary Johnson has been appointed to the Company's Board of Directors, effective immediately.

Gary Johnson has over 30 years of experience in the mining industry as a metallurgist, executive and entrepreneur. Gary was Managing Director of Norilsk Nickel Australia (USOTC: NILSY), director of Tati Nickel Mining Company (Pty) Ltd and also Chief Metallurgist for Dominion Mining Limited, at the time one of the largest gold producers in Australia.

In 1998, Mr. Johnson's company, Aqueous Metallurgy Pty Ltd and LionOre International formed Western Minerals Technology (WMT) with the principal objective being the further development and commercialization of Activox®, a process technology for treating sulphide concentrates. WMT designed and constructed a large scale Activox® demonstration plant in Botswana which won the Engineers Australia Award for most innovative engineering project of 2004. LionOre was acquired by Norilsk Nickel in 2007.

Mr. Johnson is currently managing director of Strategic Metallurgy Pty Ltd, a company specializing in high-level metallurgical and strategic consulting with whom St-Georges signed a binding letter of intent last week. The proposed partnership between St-Georges and Strategic Metallurgy will pertain to the development and commercialization of new mining extraction technologies aimed to result in innovative environmentally friendly extraction processing technology and significantly lower nickel extraction costs in future generation mills.

ON BEHALF OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS
